*THE CALL TO WORSHIP

L: I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, to present yourselves now as a living sacrifice.

P: We offer ourselves as one body. Though we have many members, we are one body in Christ, each of us joined to the others.

L: God has so made the body that the greatest honor is given to the weakest part, desiring that we take care of one another. If one of us suffers, we suffer together; if one is praised, we rejoice together.

P: God has so made the body that each of us will have gifts that differ according to the grace given us. We commit ourselves to their use in behalf of the common good.

L: We have varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; we have varieties of service, but the same Lord; it is the same God who inspires them all in everyone.

ALL: As we come together, may we do all things for the strengthening of the body and the glory of God.
