* THE CALL TO WORSHIP

L: I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord, our feet shall stand within Thy Gates, O Jerusalem!

P: For a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand elsewhere, I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

L: For the sake of the house of the Lord our God I will seek your good.

P: They are planted in the house of the Lord, they flourish in the courts of our God.

L: O Lord, I love the habitation, of your house, and the place where Your glory dwells.

P: But the Lord is in His holy Temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him.

L: Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.

ALL: O sing unto the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things. I will sing of loyalty and justice to you O Lord, I will sing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Toward an African Methodist Episcopal Aesthetic Idyll: Art and images at Wilberforce University Tuesday, October 5, 2021 at 7 p.m. (BDA). Event by National Portrait Gallery. Free- Registration required: <https://bit.ly/3dUA4CH>

As the first independent African American religious denomination, the African Methodist Episcopal (AME) Church maintains a historic position as one of the oldest surviving African American institutions. Through the use and circulation of visual culture, the AME denomination established a cultural base of Black Formalist sensibilities rooted in uplift and cultural definition. This presentation will examine the role of art and visual representational strategies as an aesthetic idyll shaped by Bishop Daniel Payne and AME bishops of the nineteenth century. Denominational leadership marshalled images of Wilberforce University, the flagship educational institution of the denomination, as evidence of racial advancement through photographs exhibited at national expositions as well as news coverage published in the Christian Recorder.
