L: Come in from the wilderness. The Spirit led us day by day! Until on our way we hungered for bread.

P: But we would not betray our God to own all the world’s food.

L: Come in from the wilderness; join in a meal at the Lord’s table. The Spirit carried us above the steeples. Until our spirits swelled with pride at our faith.

P: But we would not betray our God to fill all the world’s temples.

L: Come in from the wilderness, rest by the fire and warm your hearts. The Spirit took us to a high mountain, until our chests puffed up at the sight of all earth’s nations.
