The Virginia Equine Alliance Supports Horsemen in Clarke County

Virginia Equine Alliance

The Virginia Equine Alliance is a non-profit, 501(c)6 organization which is comprised of the Virginia Harness Horse Association, the Virginia Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Association, the Virginia Gold Cup Association, and the Virginia Thoroughbred Association.

The Alliance is committed to increasing public awareness of the economic and environmental importance to the Commonwealth of the horse breeding and horse racing industries.

Our Mission

The Clarke County Equine Alliance was established in 2004 under the auspices of the county's Economic Development Advisory Committee (EDAC), to unify and promote all equine-related business in the county, to be done by creating a central "clearing house" where members of the county's horse industry can access complete, detailed and precise information for all of their equine-related needs.

We are dedicated to increasing the connectivity of all county equine and equine-related activities, spanning all types of horses and pony breeds, and equine events, businesses and properties. We serve professionals and amateurs alike. Clarke County has a very high equine population in comparison to its small size, and our carefully protected rural landscape offers superior equine facilities and riding opportunities not available in the more developed surrounding counties.

We coordinate closely with the Clarke County Farm Bureau, whose Equine Division works diligently to enhance the equine industry in both our county and the Commonwealth of Virginia, and who also lobby effectively to protect the interests of the increasing numbers of horses and ponies which represent an ever increasing percentage of the Commonwealth's revenues.

Our members are kept informed on a regular basis of the county's equine events and other important news that may concern them. Our annual Directory, distributed for free to feed stores, horse shows and throughout the county, gives important information on where to obtain the equine services in the county which our equine population requires.

Our website clarkecountyequinealliance.org is a valuable resource used by all, including a monthly updated calendar of county equine events.

If you are a horse lover, please join us! (application on page 4)

Clarke County Sheriff (540) 955-1234

The sheriff may involve either the county's animal shelter that has facilities for boarding in emergencies or may involve the county veterinarian to fully assess the animal. Both will be responsive but must be accessed through the sheriff.

The Shenandoah Equine Rescue Network (SVERN) (540) 550-7476

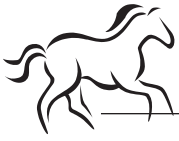

Contact: Shannon Ott

SVERN is dedicated to providing public education in equine rescue as well as all aspects of horse ownership and care. SVERN provides care and rehabilitation for unwanted, abandoned, neglected, abused and malnourished horses.

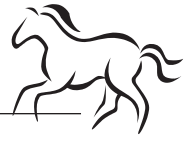

Little Fork Volunteer Fire and Rescue Company (540) 727-7900

Available to assist with physical rescues of horses who have gotten into a difficult position i.e an inescapable mud bog and cannot rise. They are dispatched by Culpepper County. Follow them at littleforkfrfc.org or Little Fork Volunteer Technical Large Animal Rescue Team on Facebook.

If you are a horse owner just having a hard time maintaining your animal, contact any member of the Clarke County Equine Alliance Board at

WE UNDERSTAND PASSION.

You know what you want—and at Farm Credit, we know how to help you get it.

For over 100 years, our passion for all things agriculture has led us to be the leader in lending to those who love farming. We've now gone one step further to create a new credit program for the young, beginning, small, and minority farmers in our area.

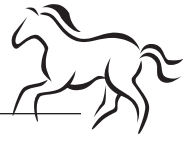

So, put your plans into motion and give us a call. We'll help guide you along the way and get you the credit you need to accomplish everything you have your heart set on.
