Presentation Title:
Implementing Land Management Traditions
into the Future through Youth Leadership

Watson Whitford comes from the Chippewa Cree and Navajo Nations and currently attends Montana State University to study Environmental Horticulture. Whitford holds the position of Male Co-President for the United National Indian Tribal Youth Organization (UNITY) serving Indigenous youth across turtle island. He also enjoys spending time with elders and learning from the land. Lastly Whitford hopes for Indigenous peoples everywhere to embrace their culture, speak their language, and to show love for one another.
