

NAFP presents

Joseph Sepsey

Nüma e Diné, a kimaaduu Payahuunadü

Paiute and Diné, I come from the land of flowing water (Bishop, CA)

Traditional Tule Duck Weaver & Youth Teacher

NEW DATE!

Wednesday

July 31st

1PM PST

Click Here!

Zoom Link:

<http://bit.ly/NAFPmtg>

or

Enter the Info

Zoom Registration Details:

Meeting ID: 886 4171 9174

Passcode: FIBER

nativeamericanfiberprogram.org

Joseph Sepsey is Nüma and Diné (Paiute and Dine) young man from Payahunnadü, also known as the Bishop Paiute Reservation in Bishop, CA. Joseph is a traditional dancer, weaver and gatherer who has learned from his grandmother, aunts, mother and great extended family. He has been selected as a youth teacher for CIBA Gatherings (Calif. Indian Basketweavers Assoc.) for the past 2 years teaching Paiute-style Tule ducks.