

OVERVIEW

Elaine Allen is a professional construction management firm committed to offering services bringing forth efficiency that allows our clients an option of shorter project tomes and lessened overhead expenses without sacrificing quality management and expertise. From project conception to closeout, we have a breadth of resources available for our clients. Serving owners, architects, engineers, government agencies and contractors, our team is capable of managing the entire construction process, from pre-design through project delivery and closeout.

Elaine Allen provides services in the following areas:

- Owner's Representation
- Construction Management/Administration
- Integrated Facilities Management
- Community Engagement

Project Experience

- K-12 Education
- Higher Education
- Commercial
- Healthcare
- Industrial
- Manufacturing
- Religious Facilities
- USACE

NAICS Codes

- 236210 Industrial Building Construction
- 236220 Commercial & Institutional Building Construction
- 237990 Other Heavy and Civil Engineering Construction
- 541611 Administrative Management & General Management Consulting Services

Certifications

- Kentucky Department of Transportation (KYTC) DBE Certification
- Ohio Department of Transportation (UCP) DBE Certification
- Tri-State Minority Supplier Diversity Council MBE (Certification)

Meldahl Hydroelectric Plant
Foster, KY

EA was the Owner's Representative of the $489 Million, 105 Mwh Power Plant on the Ohio River.

Bishop E. Carter, IV, Owner

Driven and dedicated construction management professional with 20 years of extensive experience in the management of construction projects of varying scale. Specialized skill set includes strong focus on budget and cost controls; project estimation; cost valuation and energy efficiencies. Breadth of experiences includes all facets of construction and facilities management; human resources; public relations; and complete oversight of both private and publicly-funded projects.