

Hello...

Please allow me to say how sorry we are that you are in a place to have this pamphlet in your hand. I believe the loss of a son or daughter is the most difficult death that a person can ever experience. I am sure you have found the days, weeks, months and years following to be very difficult and maybe you are ready for something, someone, someplace to just be.

We hope that you are open to trying just one meeting so that you can see that there is a place where dads like you & me, who have experienced the death of a child, are gathering to support one another and learn how to walk down this bumpy road together.

You will not find counselors or therapists. We're regular guys like you who needed a place to talk about stuff, to vent, to have conversations about continuing to move forward after losing such an important part of our world.

This group exists for you, for me, and for men who need it. There is no cost, there is no need to talk, there is just the opportunity for you to be in community with guys who get it.

Please consider joining us for one of the regular or special meetings that occur throughout the year.

Sincerely,

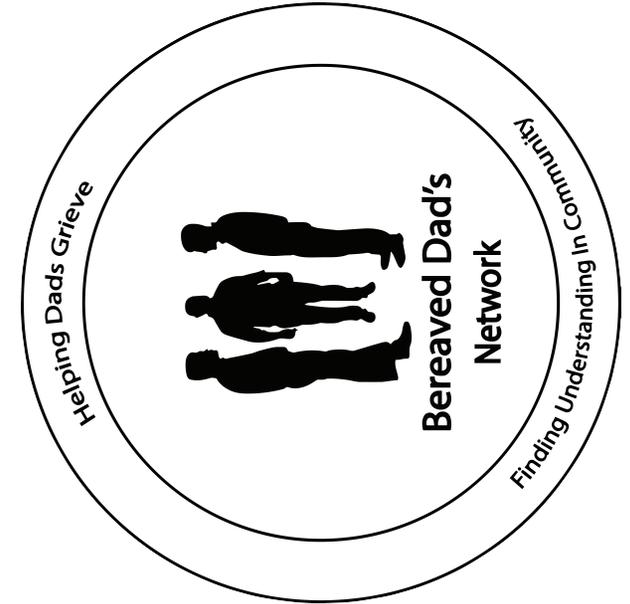

Matt B. & Steve J.

Your facilitators & fathers who have each lost a son
