

The Business Journal

PHOENIX

From the November 11, 2005 print edition

Business Notes

Piano builder and Tucson native Jens Witter has restored a 6-foot 1909 grand Mason and Hamlin piano, which was formerly owned by President Calvin Coolidge, who willed the national treasure to his niece Kathryn. Witter, who subsequently purchased the piano, donated it at the end of the October to the New Apostolic Church of Los Angeles because he thought it should be heard and not kept in a museum.

For more: www.antiquepiano.com.