

Africa for sustainable development Fellowship Introduction COHORT 3 Profiles

Musa Ibrahim

Medical Sociologist, Public Health Enthusiast, SDGs Advocate, Social Worker

Musa Ibrahim is a recent graduate from Department of Sociology, Federal University Gusau, he studied Project Management in Global Health at Department of Global Health E-learning Program, University of Washington, also an undergraduate scholar at the School of Social Work, Indira Gandhi National Open University New Delhi.

He is the Executive Director of the LONIBU Health Development Foundation, LONIBU is an acronym that fully means "Logically OriENted in Breeding Universalism (at the grassroots)".

Musa is a multifaceted service provider with diverse real-world experiences. In his work, He strives to embody qualities such as discipline, honesty, and a consistent dedication to hard work. He believes in maintaining integrity and applying both smart and hard work in all endeavors.

Key Achievements:

- ▶ Won a $350 grant
- ▶ Best Writer Award 2023 at Federal University Gusau, Nigeria.
- ▶ Founded the LONIBU Health Development Foundation.

Program Milestones:

- ▶ Trained 200 undergraduate students on the SDGs
- ▶ Increased awareness of the health implications of smoking among young people in Zamfara, Nigeria.
- ▶ Reduced the rate of Malaria and Cholera in B/Ruwa community of Zamfara.