

Jesse Sanchez

Jesse Sanchez was awarded full-scholarships to both The Cooper Union and The School of Visual Arts after graduating from New Rochelle High School in 1981, and graduated with BFA from Cooper Union in 1985.

Art has always been Mr. Jesse's focus. He has won graphic designs awards in book jackets for several New York Times bestsellers. Jesse currently lives in Westchester and works in his art studio in New Rochelle, NY, and has exhibited his work in NYC and Westchester. His work can be seen in Studio Visit Magazine and at New Century Artists, Inc. formerly in Chelsea. Jesse was president of the New Rochelle Art Association from 2006 – 2015, is a board member of The Castle Gallery at The College of New Rochelle. He is also a member of The Municipal Arts Commission, where he takes part in the approval process of public art and new signage from initiation to completion.

My goal is to create an art of deep feeling and empathy for the world. I hope that engaged viewers will value my efforts and appreciate my work for its import and invention. I believe my art holds diverse elements together, creating a common ground where love, life, and art are pursued in the search for truth in visual forms.—Jesse Sanchez, September 2016
