

Christina Coutavas is a studio artist in New York. She received a BA in Studio art from CUNY Queens College in 2016, with a concentration in drawing and ceramics. She focuses on storytelling whether she works as a cartoonist, fine artist, or ceramic doll artist. When she is not creating ceramic art, Ms. Christina works on her drawings and searches for new stories to develop. Ms. Christina loves teaching and has worked with children since 2007.
