

Christina Coutavas is a Studio Artist in New York. She received a BA in Studio art from CUNY Queens College in 2016, with a concentration in drawing and ceramics. She has taught workshops and taught groups of children in a summer arts program with class size ranging from 18-24 children. In her art she focuses on storytelling whether working as a cartoonist, fine artist, or ceramicist. When she is not creating ceramics art, Ms.Christina works on her drawings and searches for new stories to develop. Ms.Christina loves to teach and has worked with children since 2007.

Kimmy Ma Art Studio: Teaching with Ms. Christina

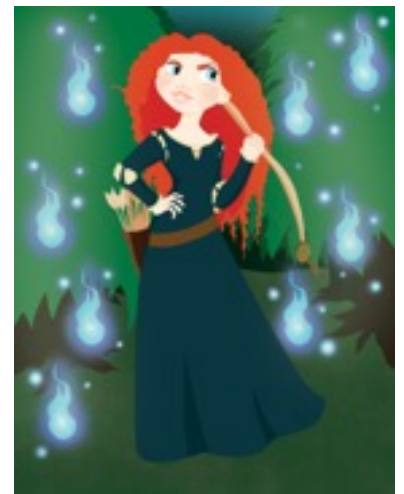

Illustration of John Keats' poem Eve of St. Agnes Poem:

Cartooning:

Traditional art and Portraiture:

Art Doll:

