Dr. Tristin Wallace, ND

Naturopathic Physician and Applied Kinesiologist:

Dr. Tristin Wallace is a Board Certified, Licensed Naturopathic Physician and Certified Applied Kinesiologist. She received her doctorate in 2007 from the National College of Natural Medicine, the oldest, accredited Naturopathic institution in the United States. There, her Naturopathic education was grounded in traditional medicine by her mentorship with Dr. Judy Peabody, whose integrity in service was honored by Portland City Commissioner Sam Adams for Outstanding Community Service in three Community Clinics. Under Dr. Peabody's training, Dr. Wallace worked to address all manner of chronic pathology in circumstances testing the strong and true heart of natural medicine. Having few resources, she nevertheless made medical miracles using her hands, water, homeopathy, dietary changes, and a handful of donated medicinal supplements.

Dr. Wallace's naturopathic education was inspired and enhanced by rigorous Chiropractic training in post-doctoral functional neurology via the International College of Applied Kinesiology (ICAK). Through this school of thought, the interrelationship of bodily systems is brought from theory to the treatment table for benefit of the whole individual.

Her revolutionary approach to Chronic Lyme and Lyme-Like Illnesses is drawn from many years of experience, including a two year Associate Practice under Dr. Dietrich Klinghardt, recipient of the 2007 Physician of Year Award from the Global Foundation of Integrative Medicine. Under Dr. Klinghardt's exemplary instruction, Dr. Wallace developed and honed her expertise in treating chronic Lyme disease, autoimmune conditions, and other persistent syndromes using intravenous therapies, homeopathy, botanicals, nutrition, traditional naturopathic medicine, physical medicine, and Dr. Klinghardt's Five Levels of Healing and ART.

Dr. Wallace's passion to find and treat the underlying cause eventually led her to address the gravest of conditions. She has most recently founded Inspiration Health & Wellness in Draper, Utah, where her team provides local access to revolutionary approaches in chronic illness and adjunct cancer support, which individuals otherwise must travel to obtain. A small jewel, Inspiration Health & Wellness boasts a robust suite of services, including Stem Cell Therapy, Laser Photo BioModulation, Intravenous Nutrients, Chelation, and Ultraviolet Light with Ozone, Infrared Sauna, and Greek Testing for individualized, holistic, superbly informed cytotoxic regimens in cancer. Her pride in and gratitude for Greek testing is based in the reliable sciences of genetic analysis, culture and sensitivity, sophisticated targeting of lysis, and individualized immunostimulating protocols for effective, natural, lasting cancer support.

Dr. Wallace recognizes the unsurpassed value in working as expert counsel to, rather than medical authority over, her clientele. Her motto and strongly held conviction is that "Good Health is Your Birthright." Inspiration Health & Wellness is a venue in which she directs her skills, experience, talent, and passion to the most cutting edge, efficient means to align individuals with their intrinsic independence, and full quality of life.

Good Health Is Your Birth Right
