

15TH ANNIVERSARY

Celebration

"Manifesting the Power of Prayer"

Luke 18:1

June 7-8, 2025
Raleigh, NC

Anointed Women Ministerial Training Team

Mission

Our mission is to encourage, train, support and create platform preparedness for those who are called to the ministry of Jesus Christ.

The vision is established on Exodus 9:16, "But I have raised you up for this very purpose that I might show you my power and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."

Vision

The vision of AWMTT is to establish a global network of ministerial trainers whose primary goal is to train and equip new ministers to build the foundation of their ministries appropriately on the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The following principles will be achieved:

- Apply the knowledge, wisdom and revelation gained to train others to become trainers.
- Create a powerful and cyclical network of anointed ministers.
- Advance, serve and support the continuation and fulfillment of the AWMTT's mission.

Serving

Active community service in a ministerial capacity is of the upmost importance to AWMTT. Training and service is provided utilizing the following methodologies:

Mentoring Youth and Future Leaders Worldwide

- Feeding and Clothing the Needy
- Conducting Bible Studies
- Providing Support to Bereaved Families
- Assisting Ex-Offenders in Successfully Re-entering Society
- Planning, Implementing and Actively Engaging in Community Evangelistic Activities

History

Minister Vivian Geter is licensed and ordained to preach and teach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. She was given the vision for AWMTT in the spring of 2010. She birthed the ministry on June 10, 2010.

Assistant Pastor James Godwin

James Godwin is an assistant pastor at Destiny International Ministries in Wendell, NC, and the leader of Kingdom Revealed ministries which focuses on biblical teaching and Christian life development. He lives in Wake Forest, NC, with his wife, Cheryl and their daughter Jada. James is also the host of the upcoming Kingdom Companion podcast, where he shares insights on faith, ministry, and Christian living.

Minister Richard Harris

Minister Richard Harris, a native of Mitchellville, MD, is a passionate servant leader committed to helping young people excel. He preached his initial sermon on March 7, 1999, and was licensed to preach by New Mount Nebo Baptist Church in Capitol Heights, MD.

Min. Harris currently serves as Director of Children and Youth Ministry at Watts Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Raleigh, NC, under the leadership of Rev.

Dr. Harry Leo White, Jr. He also inspires minds as a teacher at Leesville Road Middle School, where he was named 2021–2022 Teacher of the Year and recognized as a Wake County Public School System Semi-Finalist.

A graduate of Howard University with a Bachelor of Arts in Business Management, he also holds a Christian Ministry Diploma, Youth Ministry Award, and Spiritual Fitness Award from Christian Leaders Institute.

Whether through ministry, education, or sports, his passion is helping young people grow into their God-given purpose.

His life is anchored in Proverbs 12:25: "Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression, but a good word makes it glad."

Pastor Roland Ihaza (EE-Ha-Za)

Pastor Roland Ihaza was born in the African country of Nigeria to the late Richard and Grace Ihaza. He grew up in the small town of Ogbese, which is about 91 miles from the capital of Benin City, Edo state. In 2005, Pastor Roland met and married his wife of 20 years, Apostle Bridgett Baker, Pastor of "Jesus, It's Me Ministries."

At the age of 16, Pastor Roland gave his life to the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior. In 1996, Roland prophetically moved from his country to Germany. This is where he became a staunch member of New Life Church which is a multi-racial, multinational and non-denominational church located in Düsseldorf, Germany. In 1999, Roland became an ordained

Deacon at New Life Church. Later, he became the personal assistant to the general overseer of the Church, Bishop Richard Aidoo. Roland mentored many brothers and sisters in Germany, many of whom have become ministers and preachers of the gospel today. He is blessed with the Grace of Church planting and growth. Before he left Germany for the United States in October 2007, the New Life Church had grown to 5 different branches.

Pastor Roland is a faithful and fearless teacher and preacher of the gospel. In the year 2000, he joined Pastor Lloyd Nwokeji to found the International Christian Fellowship in Bielefeld, Germany. Roland is also one of the founders of the Global Evangelistic Network, (GEN), now led by Evangelist Daniel Schott. Since arriving in the United States, he has preached in a number of different churches. As a man of God who has traveled extensively, he has the knowledge and experiences of Christian living across 3 continents: Africa, Europe and the Americas. Pastor Roland also speaks 4 different languages!

Pastor Roland received the call and confirmation to become a pastor. He and his wife joined the Vietnamese United Prayer Spiritual Warfare Global Conference in October 2023, as sanctioned by Bishop Richard Aidoo. They are very faithful members to the conference and travel extensively to do spiritual warfare and Kingdom Missions.

At present, Pastor Roland is a member of Faith City Church International in Altavista, VA, where Bishop Dwight Butler is the general overseer, along with his wife, Pastor Connie Butler. Pastor Roland is already making great strides and positive impact at Faith City International. Along with many other priorities in his calling, he has the burden to always pray, fellowship and partner with other Kingdom citizens in order to further advance and expand the kingdom of our Lord in America and around the world.

In June 2024, Pastor Roland had the pleasure of attending the 14th year anniversary of the Anointed Women Ministerial Training Team when it was held at Faith City Church. This is where he met Dr. Vivian Geter and has been a faithful partner on the "Day by Day" prayer line ever since.

All Glory, Honor and Blessings be unto the Lord our God forever! Amen!!!

Rev Linda McCrimmon

Reverend Linda M. McCrimmon was born in Chapel Hill NC to the late Minister McKinley Baldwin and the late Lucy M. Baldwin. Reverend McCrimmon was married for 42 years to the love of her life, the late brother Lewis McCrimmon. She is a proud mother, grandmother, great grand mother and god mother. Rev. McCrimmon is now retired and happily shares the good news of Jesus Christ.

Rev. McCrimmon received a bachelor degree in theology in 1985 at the former United Bible Institute and she later graduated with a master's degree from the former Union Bible Institute. Rev. McCrimmon also received a certificate in Christian Education from Shaw Divinity School.

Having received and answering a call from the Lord, Rev. McCrimmon preached her initial sermon January 14, 1979 at her home church, Alston Grove Congregational Church in Chapel Hill, NC. She also became an ordained minister at the same church and served many years before being directed by Holy Spirit to accept role at another church. However, in recent years, Reverend McCrimmon has return as the Associate Minister at Alston Grove Congregational Church.. Prior to accepting current appointment, Rev. McCrimmon and her husband served at Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Moncure, NC for several years and she also served at Wadsworth Congregational church, Whitsett, NC for 13 years.

Rev. McCrimmon has served in many capacities in the vineyard of the Lord. She has attended the Hampton Ministerial Conference in Hampton, Va for 34 years. She has served as a field worker for 2 consecutive terms for North Carolina Conferences of Congregational Churches and served as vice moderator for 2 consecutive terms for NCCCC as well. Rev. McCrimmon is also an ordination board member for NCCCC. In December 2023, Rev. McCrimmon was elected as president of the Fifth Sunday Union for the NCCCC. Other roles for Rev. McCrimmon include evangelism with assisted living facilities and filling in for various pastors in their absence. Since 1999, Rev. McCrimmon's sermons have been broadcast over the airwaves. Currently, Rev. McCrimmon serves as a facilitator and prayer warrior for AWMTT under the Honorable Dr. Vivian Geter, visionary and founder of Anointed Womens Ministerial Training Team.

Rev. McCrimmon continues to do the work of the Lord and shares the Good News of a risen Savior. She is an evangelist, an encourager but most of all, Rev. Linda B. McCrimmon is a child of God!

Pastor James Morrison

"A Man with a Heart for God's people"

Pastor James E. Morrison, Sr., of Lake Ridge, Virginia is the son of the late Thomas and Mary Lou Morrison of Fayetteville, North Carolina. He is the proud father of James E. Jr. & Jasmine Morrison. James attended Cumberland County Public Schools. Upon graduating high school James furthered his education with attendance at Hampton University, Hampton VA, and San Antonio and Palo Alto colleges, part of the Alamo Colleges District in San Antonio, TX. James pursued a career in Management of Warehouse Shipping and Receiving with Belk's Department Stores in Charlotte, NC for over 10 years. His career spanned various locations in the United States as he traveled with his former spouse, Debby Winston-Morrison, a United States Air Force Officer. Pastor James was employed as Warehouse Supervisor of Shipping and Receiving with USAA Insurance Company in San Antonio, TX from 1988- 2003. In 2004, James' enterprising spirit led him to venture into business for himself, as the founder and proud owner of "Kleaning King", a commercial cleaning operation, based in Lake Ridge, VA. On April 17, 1994, James received his official preaching license from the Second Missionary Baptist Church in Fayetteville, North Carolina, under the mentorship of the late Dr. I.E. Swann. James received his certificate of ministry following attendance at the Ministry Institute, in Burgaw, NC, and served as an Associate Minister for 10 years. Through his travels he served as an Associate Minister at Joshua Missionary Baptist Church of San Antonio, TX, under the late Pastor Clifton Phillips, working in the capacities of Pastor's Armor Bearer, Worship Leader, and Youth Mentor, while spearheading the church's Building Committee remodeling projects. Today, Pastor James assists with Pastoral Services for First Eternal Baptist Church in Jamaica Queens, New York, under Pastor Henry Barr. James is an Associate Pastor in Pastors on Wheels (POW), a network of Pastors who mobilize to meet community needs. He also partnered with Kingdom Kindness and Help Ministries, providing outreach services in North Carolina and New York since 2004. Pastors on Wheels (POW), personifies Pastor James' ministry ethic, as he is faithfully devoted to mission of God. He is proud to serve as a member of the Anointed Women Ministerial Team (AWMTT).

Andrea Pettiford

Andrea Underwood Petifer, born in Chapel Hill, raised in Raleigh, and living in Durham, North Carolina, is an educator, author, and curator of care. The past union president's earliest memories of writing took place sitting at the table her grandfather built. She strives to craft stories of truth that inspire reflective practice and promote the possibilities of change for the youngest of readers. Her debut picture book, THE JUNETEENTH ALPHABET will be published by Duopress on April 1, 2025.

First Lady Dr. Shauntae White

Dr. Shauntae has a passion for women and is known for her engaging workshops in which she challenges audiences to apply learned knowledge to their everyday lives.

During her early years, she observed the power of the spoken word to make or break relationships. Because of the impact of that awareness, she majored in journalism at Howard University, where she earned a B.A. She went on to earn a M.A. degree in Speech Communication from the University of Alabama and a Ph.D. in Communication Studies from the University of Kansas.

Dr. Shauntae is currently a professor in Mass Communication at North Carolina Central University where she also serves as coordinator of the Women's & Gender Studies Program. She has written several academic articles and book chapters and is the author of The First Lady: African American Pastors' Wives in Their Own Words and the co-editor of Representations of Black Womanhood on Television: Being Mara Brock Akil.

Shauntae is married to her longtime college friend, the Rev. Dr. Harry L. White, Jr., who pastors Watts Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Raleigh, NC. They have two daughters.

Benediction

Captain Jason Buckley

Jason Buckley was born in East Saint Louis, Illinois, to Joe and Betty Buckley. He has an older brother, Vincent. Jason was raised in Chesterfield (St. Louis), Missouri. In his desire to become a pilot, after graduating from High School, he attended the Naval Academy Preparatory School, in Newport, Rhode Island, and received an appointment to the United States Naval Academy. During his four demanding years there, he earned a Bachelor of Science in Economics, with a minor in Spanish, graduating in 1998. And he was able to obtain a slot in Naval Aviation. He started flight school in September of 1998, flying the T-34 Mentor, the T-44 Pegasus, and the T-2 Buckeye. Upon completion of flight training, he was selected to fly the C-2 Greyhound. The C-2 aircraft is designed and used to fly cargo, passengers, and mail to carriers throughout the world.

During his 20 years in the Navy, Jason served in Japan flying the C-2, in Norfolk, VA as a C-2 instructor, Djibouti Africa as the personal Aide to the area Admiral, next again flying C-2son deployment, this time out of San Diego, then flying the C-2 and E-2 after major repair and service in San Diego, served on a carrier as the Assistant Air Officer, and finally, as Executive Officer and C-12 pilot in Bahrain.

As proud and blessed as he was to achieve these many professional accomplishments, his most proud blessing was to have two wonderful sons, Tyler and Connor. Through all the ups and downs and adventures of life, both boys are thriving; Tyler is in his 3 year at the University of Colorado Boulder as a civil engineer major. Connor is in a San Diego junior college and is waiting for letters of acceptance from several 4 year schools!

Currently, Jason is an airline Captain at Delta Air Lines, flying the Boeing 757 and 767. He flies out of Los Angeles, and lives in San Diego.

Jason is happy in life!

Reverend Emma Curry

Mistress' of Ceremony' for AWMTT Banquet

Rev. Curry is a native of Emporia, Va. She is the seventh of ten siblings. She is a graduate of Virginia State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree. She earned credits towards a Master of Divinity degree from Richmond Virginia Seminary Bible College and Washington Saturday College. Prior to retiring, she was employed for 32 years in the social work field for the state of Maryland.

Reverend Curry is married to Rev. Freddie L. Curry. They serve as associates ministers at Zion Baptist Church in Welcome, Maryland where Reverend Gloria A. Savoy is pastor. Rev. Curry is the mother of two; a grandmother of four, and a great grandmother of twelve. She served as a member of the deaconess ministry at Zion Baptist Church prior to her call to preach the Gospel. She has served in many capacities and holds membership in several organizations. She is a Sunday School teacher and teacher of the New Members Class. She served as co-chairperson of the Couples Ministry. She was licensed to preach the Gospel at Zion Baptist Church (January 9, 1993). She was ordained on October 11, 2003. Rev. Curry participates in various ministries: facilitator for women conferences and retreats and instructor for the Potomac River Baptist Association. She also taught Bible classes at the Charles County Detention Center in La Plata, MD. She is a participant in the Anointed Women Ministerial Training Team Day by Day Prayer Line outreach ministry. Rev. Curry is grateful for the opportunity to preach and teach God's Word. She is reminded that the Scripture declares that "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few" (Matthew 9:37).

Her favorite passage of Scripture is Psalm 34:1, "I will bless the Lord at all times: His praises shall continually be in my mouth."
