Week 6: Discovered Attacks

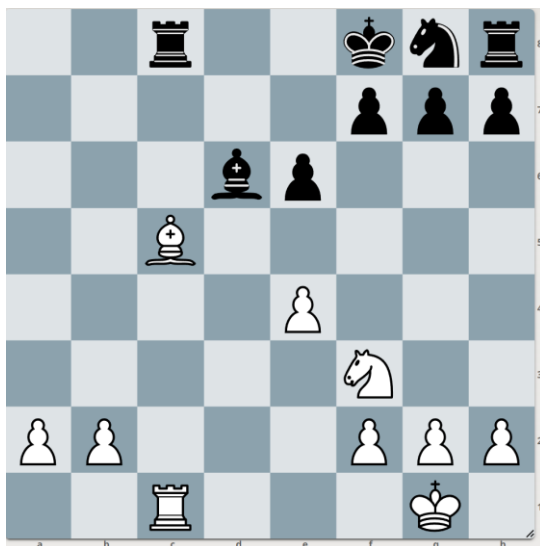

A discovered attack involves moving one of your pieces to reveal an attack from another piece. Often (but not always) the first move involves a check, as that has to be dealt with, meaning the discovered attack can't be stopped.

In this position it's Black to move. If we play 1...Bxh2+, we sacrifice a bishop for a pawn (usually not a good idea!) but it uncovers an attack on the White rook from our rook on d8:

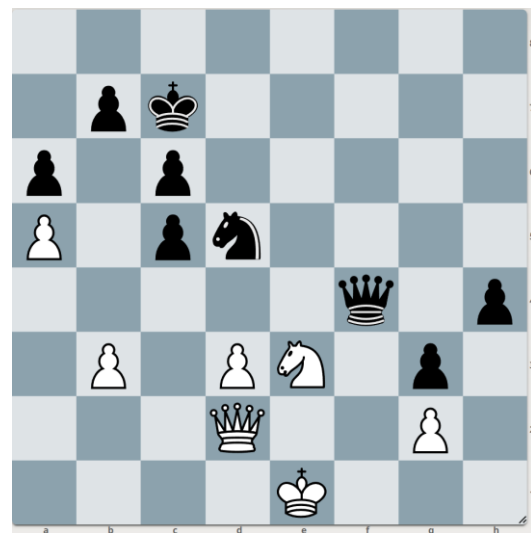

1...Bxh2+
2.Kxh2 Rxd1

We end up ahead in material

1 – White to move

2 – White to move.

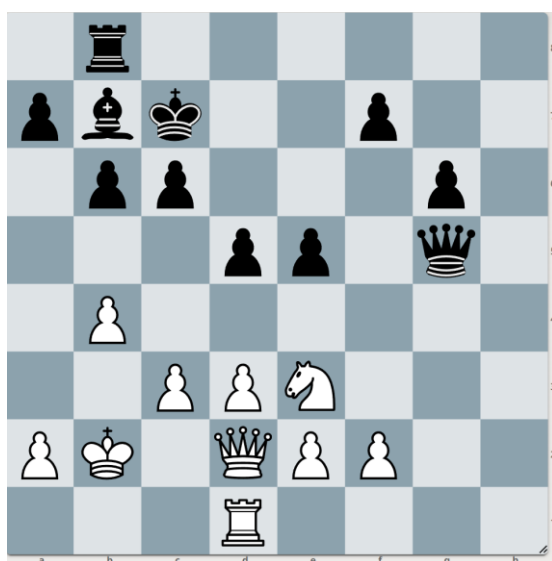

3 – White to move

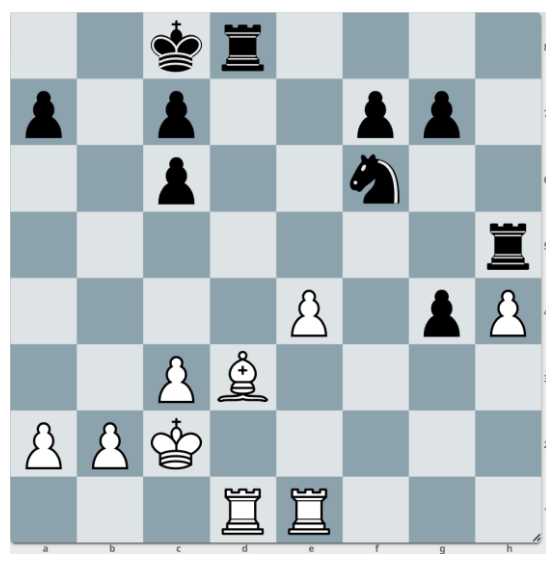

4 – Black to move

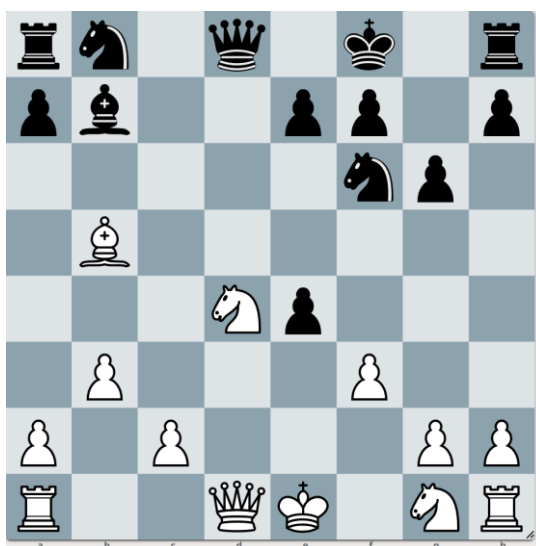

5 – White to move

6 – White to move

7 – White to move

8 – Black to move
