The person(s) investigating the complaint will not be the subject of the complaint.

Complaints will be handled by people who have the appropriate skills and authority to resolve or investigate complaints and, where appropriate, provide remedies and identify improved practices.

The person managing the complaint will consider:

- What information is required and where to source it;
- How it should be collected (system's review, phone call, document review etc);
- What you would like to resolve the issue, in what time frame, and if we can reasonably meet this expectation; and
- How a response should be communicated to the you (verbally, email, letter etc).

Procedural Fairness / Open Disclosure

YPCA requires fair and proper procedure prior to any decision being reached in regard to a complaint.

Following investigation, YPCA will provide the complainant;

- An unbiased and genuine consideration of their account;
- An opportunity to reply in a way that is appropriate for the circumstances;
- The opportunity for their reply to be received and considered before the final outcome;
- All relevant information before preparing their reply; and
- A description of the possible decision; and the criteria for making that decision and information on which any such decision would be based.

Confidentiality and Record-Keeping

Personal information, the identity of the complainant, and any people who are the subject of a complaint, is kept confidential and only used for the purposes of addressing the complaint and any follow up actions. This information is kept for a period of seven years. Only relevant YPCA staff have visibility of complaint records.

Responding to Complaints

Actions taken to resolve a complaint must be based on the evidence / issues raised by you and be informed by the principles of fairness, respect, and transparency.

All complaints require, to a greater or lesser degree, an investigation to determine what has happened and an appropriate course of action.

If we cannot resolve your complaint at first point of contact YPCA' endeavour to, where possible, resolve complaints within 30 calendar days after receipt of the complaint.

External Disputes Resolution

YPCA remains committed to continuous improvement and resolution of its complaints wherever possible. However, customers and representatives always maintain the right to escalate complaints to external parties including the NDIS Commission, State Governing Bodies and external advocacy services.
