

Project Celebrity Entertainment Casting

PCE Casting has been the leader for nearly a century in casting real people for real work as Background Actors, Stand-Ins, and body doubles in movies, television, commercials and, more recently, online streaming. We are proud of our long heritage and the important role we play in helping actors get work and new actors to get into the business. In order for PCE Casting to cast you, we need to share photo(s) of you with production companies so they can select people to achieve the right look for the scenes they are portraying on camera. And, like any business, PCE Casting needs to promote itself which creates more job opportunities for our Background Actors. Thus, we may also use photo(s) of you on our website and other marketing material that promotes PCE Casting's casting business. The purpose of this image release is to acquire your consent to use photo(s) of you for these purposes.
