

Arab American Heritage Month

Arab American Heritage Month is celebrated in April to honor Americans with roots in Arabic-speaking countries.

Arab Americans have contributed to U.S. society for over 100 years in:

- Medicine
- Business
- Education
- Public service

Large immigration waves began in the late 1800s from Lebanon, Syria, and Palestine.

Arab Americans have often faced misunderstanding and stereotyping especially after national security crises.