Kimball to remove the Saints from Missouri to Illinois quoting some lines from the Beatitudes.	Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball and ensemble.

Brother Joseph Song List

19	March 1839	When the Savior Comes	✓	The Saints leave Missouri for Illinois in the dead of winter.	Joseph, Brigham, Heber and ensemble.
20	March 1839	Where Art Thou?	✓	Joseph, still in liberty jail sings D&C 121 and 122, pleading with the Lord for help and guidance.	Joseph
21	April 1839	I Believe!	✓	Emma Smith and her children are now in Illinois where a stranger has provided them shelter. Julia Smith (8 years old) expresses concern that she will never see her father again. Emma sings of her faith in God to help buoy Julia. Joseph joins the song from Liberty Jail.	Emma, Julia Smith and Joseph
22	Summer 1839	Oh, My! Oh, My! (Reprise)		The Saints begin building the City of Nauvoo, Illinois from the swamps on the shore of the Mississippi.	Ensemble
23	1843 / 44	You Can't Say That!		William Law, 2nd Counselor in the First Presidency, takes issue with several of Joseph's latest revelations as well as his political platform (Joseph decides to run for President of the United States). William sings about the things that Joseph is saying which William believes to be heresies.	William Law, Sidney Rigdon, Joseph and ensemble.
24	1843 /44	Psalms 119 (Let Thy Tender Mercies Come)	✓	Joseph introduces doctrine of "Plural Marriage" to several leaders of the church. Most struggle with this new doctrine. They go home to their wives and pray for confirmation from the Lord that this is what they should do.	Brigham, Joseph, William, Williard Richards and their wives.
25	May / June 1844	You Don't Set the Score	✓	William Law leaves the church. He is now in open rebellion against Joseph Smith and, with a number of associates, published newspaper called "The Nauvoo Expositor". The City Council then declares the paper a "public nuisance" and has the press destroyed.	William, Joseph, Hyrum Smith, John Taylor and the ensemble.
26	June 1844	I Will Be With You (Reprise)		Things have become heated in Illinois. The Govern has subpoenaed Joseph and Hyrum to appear in Carthage for a hearing regarding the destruction of the press. Joseph, realizing he will not receive fair treatment in Illinois, departs for Washington DC where he hopes he can receive some support for his cause. Hyrum and many of Joseph's friends, convince him to stay and to Carthage.	Hyrum sings to Joseph.
27	June 1844	The Last Time I Saw Joseph Smith		Joseph leaves Nauvoo. There is a dark cloud over the city.	William and ensemble.
28	June 27, 1844	Good-bye Joseph Smith / A Poor and Ordinary Man	✓	Joseph and Hyrum are killed in Carthage Jail. 12 year-old Joseph Smith starts the song and is then joined by the 38 year-old Joseph Smith. The two of them together recap Joseph's story and summarize some of the important doctrines that were restored. The ensemble then join and sing of their love for Joseph. Joseph's and Hyrum's bodies are taken from Carthage to Nauvoo.	Young Joseph, adult Joseph, and ensemble.
29	After June 27, 1844	I Believe it!	✓	The mob are now unleashed on Nauvoo and the Saints are once again threatened with extermination... but it doesn't matter because their faith is strong enough to withstand all the wiles of hell. The song grows from a quite, solemn, almost funeral march piece to a joyful triumphant number as the entire cast and crew enter the stage and sing of their belief in the restored Gospel and Joseph Smith as the Prophet of the Lord.
