This form is to be used to record your in-service activity for the two (2) year certificate period and will serve as the application for certification renewal.

The certificate period will be two (2) years from the date of completion. This certificate may be renewed if compliance with the in-service requirements has been reported to the Commission prior to the expiration date.

It is important that the EMS trained driver maintain proficiency in the safe and efficient operation of EMS vehicles. To renew the certificate, each trained driver must initiate and successfully complete the following:

Six (6) hours continuing education directly related to the EMS driving course content during the certificate period. Report compliance prior to the “valid through” date on your certificate.

Because this is a voluntary certificate program, the Commission will not regularly communicate with the trained driver during the certificate period concerning their in-service status.
