PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH: Parenting Tip #165 Family time matters, as much when our children age as when they are young. It helps to ensure this happens by building traditions that everyone partakes in regularly. Traditions that everyone looks forward to and enjoys - pizza and movie nights, a special breakfast after attending Mass, games night – anything that brings you together for fun will do. The emotional health of children with these kinds of connections is stronger throughout their lifetime. As a family, plan your together time weekly and remember to share meals together daily, whichever meal of the day that must be. With a solid family foundation, your connectedness can and will stay intact as your children grow older. (From: Teresa Hartnett, Family Ministry Office; 905-528-7988 ext. 2250)

JUSTICE, PEACE AND THE INTEGRITY OF CREATION: Two foci for the struggle for justice for Development and Peace are women and the Earth. Ecological justice: What harms the Earth is also what spreads poverty and hunger. To care for our common home, we are called to support initiatives that promote the sustainable use of natural resources and the development of economic systems that respect the planet’s limits and people’s dignity. Justice for women: With the conviction that empowering women enriches entire societies, we are called to engage women and men in transforming the power relations that create inequalities and prevent women from being active and full citizens within their communities.

JANUARY 19, 2025: First Reading: Isaiah 62. 1-5; Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 96; Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12.4-11; Gospel Acclamation 2 Thessalonians 2.14; Gospel: John 2.1-12
