DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE- CARITAS CANADA'S (DPCC) "REAPING OUR RIGHTS" CAMPAIGN:

Why is DPCC campaigning for human rights and environmental due diligence legislation? To help our partners and the communities they support!!! Many potential abuses would be prevented by placing the legal obligation on Canadian companies to assess the risks of human rights and environmental abuses before engaging in a project. It ensures that the mitigation of the risk of harm is continually monitored and that harmed communities have access to justice in Canada, we ensure that communities' rights are not denied because of governance issues in their home countries. It places the burden of action on Canadian companies, we alleviate the pressure on vulnerable communities to stand against multinational corporations on their own. More next week!
