Those who worship regularly at that mass have a right to do so on that day. You may wish to consider the fact that there will be reserved seating for confirmand and their sponsors. The church will be filled to the brim on that evening with family and friends. Considering the above and parking situation for that mass you may wish to attend mass on Sunday morning during that weekend.

Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross will be held at both Churches each Friday during Lent at 7:00 PM except Good Friday.

Supporting Foodbank

Hello all. Our community has demonstrated phenomenal generosity and support for the needs of the foodbank. There is a shortage of fruits and vegetables: potatoes, carrots, beans, apples, oranges. Other welcome items are instant coffee and snacks for kids.

On behalf of the foodbank we are requesting your help in providing the above if possible. Donations can be dropped off at the church. Please contact Francesca by e-mail (Francesca.f@ew-cs.com) and/or text me at 647 473 5686 Thank you for your continued support.

Free event including lunch

Come experience the love and power of the Holy Spirit as He awakens His presence in each and every Christian as well as His life transforming gifts that each and every one of us has been given yet we continue to live a life that is desert like, distant and obscured from God's love. As Christians we are meant to be living in God's love and blessings. This is God calling you to experience

Justice

Quote of the week: "if the Amazon suffers, the world suffers". Pope Francis, 2019

Share Lent: For years now, the Mura people of Brazil's Amazonas state have sought to assert their claim to their ancestral lands. To their frustration however, it has been much easier for cattle herders and a potash mine to occupy and control those lands than it has been for them to have their rights respected. Development and Peace's partner, the Indigenous Missionary Council (CIMI), helps them advocate for, defend and publicize their cause more effectively. "On behalf of the Mura in my region, I want to thank Canadians. We are very happy to have your support. It helps us in our struggle to have our rights and our land respected." J. Oliveira, representative of the Mura community. Watch their testimony at devp.org/campaign/mura.

Note: In Canada, the situation of Indigenous Peoples and land protection is very similar. Canada, a long-time objector to the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, finally signed on in May of 2016. We have yet to enshrine it in law.

Our parish is named for Jesuit Father Jean de Brebeuf, the Patron Saint of Canada. He was born in 1593 and came to Canada from France as a missionary in 1625, working with people of the Wendat (Huron) Confederacy. He learned their languages and spread the message of Christ for more than 20 years. He composed the Huron Carol, Canada's oldest Christmas song, written about 1642 with aboriginal lyrics. He helped establish the mission near Midland, Ontario, now the site of the Sainte-Marie among the Hurons shrine, which honours the Canadian Martyrs. At that time, the Wendat were at war with the Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) Confederacy. Father Brebeuf and a fellow Jesuit were captured by the Haudenosaunee in a raid on a Wendat village in 1649, then tortured and killed. St. Jean de Brebeuf was beatified in 1925 by Pope Pius XI, and canonized in 1930. His feast day is September 26.

A Catholic parish was established in 1873 for the Townships of Erin and Eramosa. In 1959, Bishop Ryan asked the Jesuits to establish a mission in Erin. Masses were said at the Legion Hall until the church was opened in 1965, with Jesuit Father Frederick Elliott serving as the pastor until 1981. Since then the parish has had the following pastors: Father Edward Grace OSA, 1981-1986; Father Charles Lagan SFM, 1986 to 1990; Father Gus Arthurs CSSp, 1990-2001; Father Joe Kelly CSSp, 2001-2015; Father Ralph Diodati, 2015-2017; and our current pastor, Father Don Sanvido.
