COMPANY OVERVIEW

Lynn O'Mara, MBA established StratCat Consulting™, LLC to provide business consulting services that include strategic guidance and support to key executives and board members; implementation and execution of business and strategic plans; and assistance with government relations, marketing communications, investor relations, and regulatory compliance navigation. It is the catalyst that sets business strategies in motion for growth and success.

Vision: To be a valued partner and asset for our clients.

Mission: To be the catalyst that enables and supports business growth and success by assisting clients with the implementation and execution of their strategic plans to foster efficient operations, generate revenues, and meet company goals and objectives.

Inspiration: The historical symbolism of the Big Cats offers shrewd wisdom to help guide a successful path for any business. We help clients to think strategically like the Tiger, move quickly like the Cheetah, face challenges like the Lion, and be visionary like the Leopard.
