MY STORY

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Adrenaline rushed through my veins as I left behind the million dollar life I co-created to start over as a single mom on food stamps. Did I do the right thing? Was I a failure? Are we going to be ok? Crawling through that financial-emotional trauma ignited me to heal deep money wounds and master financial intelligence. After all, my little girls were following my lead. I had to succeed.

Ironically, that wasn't the first time I went from riches to rags. The original imprint came when I was abandoned in a mansion with a checkbook at 14 years old, down the street from the Forbes estate, in New Jersey. Without guardians or parents we fended for ourselves from that point forward. Hitting rock bottom started to feel like home until some lessons started to sink in.

Early life events shape us mentally, emotionally and financially, creating subconscious blueprints that will repeat throughout our lives. I was sick of feeling oppressed and wanted to propel higher. After graduating from New York University with a Psychology degree, I continued dedicating my life to the study of human potential, development and transformation.

In 2010, I founded Female Empowered Mentorship to help women reprogram their subconscious drives to thrive personally and professionally. In 2022, I founded Elevate Financial Team™ to offer financial services and created the Wealthy Woman's Way™ mentorship program to address the mind, soul and spirit alongside financial strategies.

I believe that we are all created with greatness to fulfill a unique mission and purpose that only we can do. Every speech, interview and appearance I make is to remind the listener of their light within, to rise up and shine as brightly as possible.

A LETTER FROM MARY

Connecting with your audience heart to heart from stage is imperative in today's global environment because that unifying field reminds people: the world is essentially good and they have the power to create a better life. My job as a speaker is to first create an energetic atmosphere where your audience steps out of time for a moment to tap into the deeper truths of life. Then, I can teach, inspire, and encourage the people to rise up ignited to go for more. Our time here is limited and wealth, health and legacy is everyone's birthright. We are born to turn challenges into a champion's moment where we surpass all obstacles and stand as leaders to elevate those behind us. Every speech is tailored to an event's theme, audience and intention. Having shared stages with Deepak Chopra and Les Brown, those are the inspirational ones I look to as I craft illuminating speeches for humanity.

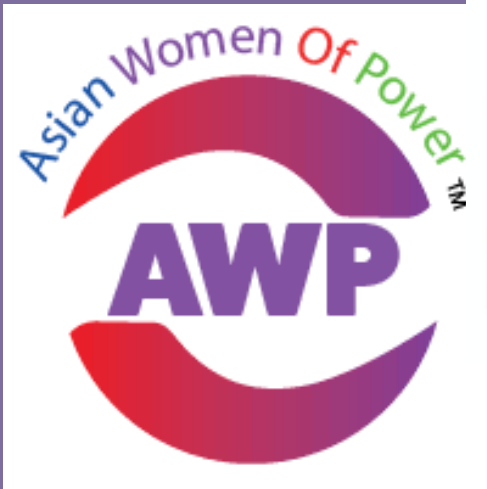

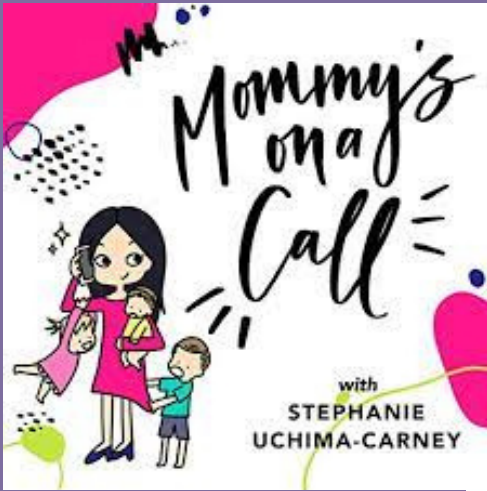

BOOK MARY

Every year, I travel to multiple events speaking on the topics of leadership, transformation and economic empowerment. Stages give event producers and I the chance to blow your audience's mind away with inspiration, added financial intelligence or actionable ideas to improve their lives. Along with creating books, podcasts and documentaries, I also host Wealthy Woman TV on my Network, Elevated Woman TV. I believe that now is the most important time to spread financial literacy to all people. We all deserve a great life.
