

THE FOOTBALL FAMILY AMBASSADOR PROGRAMME

Do you have a passion for sports and business?

The Football Family want to engage with current and former sports professionals or driven individuals with a passion for sport and business.

What we do

The Football Family provides essential qualifications to the sports sector through quality delivery of education

Our vision is to be the best, giving people the opportunity to unlock their potential, gain qualifications and fulfil their aspirations.

The Opportunity

The Football Family is growing rapidly and we require you as an Ambassador to promote the work that we do within your network, local community and sporting clubs.

The Football Family will provide full training, support, guidance and mentorship for you to maximise this opportunity.

- No experience needed
