

On October 9, members of St. Luke United Women in Faith in Enterprise provided dinner for the students at the Wesley Foundation at Troy University. The students are invited every Thursday for a free meal and a time of learning and fellowship.

The UWFaith members served spaghetti, salad, homemade bread sticks and cookies and enjoyed meeting the students and the director, Rev. Sheryl Palmer. Wesley Foundations are a United Methodist student ministry and a significant factor in identifying future leaders.