2023 VIRTUAL BOOK STUDY via Zoom

White Fragility by Dr. Robin DiAngelo

SCHEDULE/AGENDA/PREP

White Fragility refers to the discomfort white people experience when talking about racism. Reading and discussion of this book may be a challenging journey, but necessary to respond God's call in our lives and to fully live into the Charter for Racial Justice.

Two question to reflect on as you prepare for our first session*

1. Identify a passage from chapter 1 that invokes any sense of discomfort. Highlight this passage and return to reading it periodically as you work through the book. What does this passage reveal about your socialization into the white racial frame? Does your discomfort shift over time? If so, what supported that shift?
2. If you are working through these questions as part of a white discussion group, how will you keep the discussion on track (focused on ourselves and our own participation)? How will you ensure that when common white patters surface (distancing, intellectualizing, rationalizing), you will work to identify and challenge them rather than ignore or avoid them?

* *After you register for this book study, you will be emailed the discussion guide **
