MOODY BLUE

Her favorite look is comfy washed-out jeans and lots of lace--she likes to be fancy when she's not hauling hay bales. Throw in some scalloped designs from her favorite saddle and a mirror as big as the Texas sky. As sweet and sassy as a country girl. That describes our three-color "Moody Blue" dresser.

BLUE OCEAN

Like the waters of a Mediterranean bay, the mesmerizing wash of colors on this armoire took a full palette to express. Enlivened with a hint of copper, four cool shades ranging from deep sapphire to pale aqua blend and mingle, setting your artist's heart aflutter and inspiring endless accent possibilities. Cozy fall blankets, fresh linens, or your favorite outfits would love to call this beautiful piece home. $425

EBONY 1

The Egyptians once gathered the finest Ethiopian ebony to craft exquisite furniture for Pharaoh. Three thousand years later, our artists go on their own modest quests--minus the chariots--to find pieces made from quality woods, the perfect foundation for our paints. This soft black distressed chest embodies both timeless elegance and trendy simplicity, with eye-catching molding providing drama.

EBONY 2

The second piece in our Ebony line, this soft black buffet is as tidy and proper as an Amish bonnet. Its uncomplicated lines suggest traditional American furniture, but it's equally at home in a 21st century family room. Whether you accent it with farm fresh eggs or silver candlesticks, "Ebony 2" is ready to embrace your lifestyle.

EBONY 3

We think Coco Chanel would approve. The inventor of the little black dress knew that some simple classics need no embellishment, and that was our guiding principle for this chic dresser. Painted in timeless noir, it boasts clean lines and a spacious mirror, for of course you will want to check your lipstick before setting out to conquer your social circle. Don't forget your diamond earrings! No, you won't forget. A glance at the glass drawer pulls will remind you. $379

BLACK ROSE

This dresser might have held a senorita's treasures once upon a time in Santa Fe. Perhaps the soft black paint was inspired by her favorite velvet ribbon; and the red rose bouquet, tucked into a geometric frame, was a nod to the flowers she wore in her hair. The minimalistic hardware completes the Southwestern look, a charming piece for any home. $329

GARDEN GATE

Sheer linens swaying on the clothesline, paper boats drifting down the stream, and butterflies floating over a fern-kissed picket fence--these are the joys that inspired this milky white buffet.

Can you spot the garden gate with its wrought-iron finials? Fresh, clean, and delightfully worn, this lovely piece will brighten any room. $275

FRENCH FLOWERS

This winsome sideboard surely spent bygone days in an artist's Provence retreat. Painted classic white and framed with green, it boasts a bevy of botanicals too effervescent to be content on mere paper. How to fill the spacious cream top is up to you. Perfumes? Books? Hors d' oeuvres? It's a dreamy accent for any room of the house. $259

SWEET PEA

They say we should surround ourselves with things that spark joy. This merry nightstand does just that. Bursting with vivid color, distressed to reveal a touch of warmth, it can't wait to meet your gaze every morning. Its bow front drawer awaits your bedtime necessities. Go ahead... push that snooze button! Good morning, Sweet Pea! $89

SUNFLOWER NIGHT

Imagine a summer night somewhere in America's heartland. Family and friends have gathered. Golden light and laughter from the kitchen spill out an open window onto Mama's flowers, presided over by a sunflower too exuberant to wait for sunrise. A cool black finish sets off subtle details in the woodwork to complete the homey, whimsical air of this adorable chest. $279

TIME GONE BY

This oak washstand was born in a world of corsets and crinolines. After splashing her face, many a beruffled lass has reached for the linens it obligingly offered. And many a mustachioed gent has stooped over it to fearlessly shave with a straight razor. In lieu of its missing marble, we gave it a fresh charcoal black top. Now it's ready to serve the modern household with old-fashioned refinement and charm. $259

LEA

In its two-color coat of gray, this buffet has a rugged elegance about it. The distressed finish gives off a sturdy, self-sufficient vibe. Its drawers are perfect for stashing his good cigars and old Bourbon, her letters and knitting. Set it in a room with a crackling fire, some punched tin, a lazy dog, and plenty of wrought-iron; and it will be content. $425

LITTLE LEA

A variation of our Lea line, this small buffet might have come from a Nantucket sea captain's parlor.

Light and shadow dance across its weathered surface like sunset rays over a tempestuous sea. Its blustery colors and textures suggest driftwood and scudding clouds. This striking piece takes quiet modern neutrals and sets them into rollicking motion. $379

SHARON

One wonders if Jane Austen owned such a charming little piece. It's the ideal place for pressing wildflowers, sharing tea and gossip, or jotting down the lines of your next great novel. Dressed in our three-color yellow finish and adorned with botanical transfers, it can't help but indulge in romantic fancies wherever it goes. $219

SUNNY DAY

A true lady is known for her effortless style, lack of pretention, and talent for making her guests feel truly at home. Painted with three sunshine shades of yellow, this foyer table will greet your company with that same friendly decorum. Its sleek lines recall the days of harpsichords and Wedgewood, while the updated color beams a warm and very modern welcome. $159

QUEENIE

If this little cabinet were any more adorable, it would have a wet nose and a wagging tail! It's fun-loving, with whimsical carved vines meandering over the top. And it's protective--the built-up top will keep your treasures from toppling. It's painted a solid golden yellow and lightly distressed, so it's not afraid to get a little messy. It wants to bring a smile to your face as soon as you walk in the door. $259

Unique Requests from Our Customers

SAGEBRUSH

This two-drawer cabinet once looked weary, worn, and (pardon my bluntness) old. It needed a makeover. Rule #1: Emphasize good features. We kept the chic lines front and center. Rule #2: Ditch outdated shades! We gave it a trendy new color--sage green--to hide the scuffs and scrapes. Rule #3: Accessorize! The dark top and accents complete the look. $300
