October 2023

President's Pen

Gina Miller

Hello Quilting Friends,

Well, my friends it's so hard to believe that we are in the middle of September. I had such hopes for all my UFO's this year. For some reason I start new projects instead of finishing my UFO's, but that's ok there is always next year. (HAHA)

I hope you were able to join us for the English Paper Piecing make and take in September. I heard so many wonderful comments about how much fun was had and how they enjoyed getting to visit with the ladies at their table. Thank you to those who worked with the members that are new to EPP.

OCTOBER IS AUCTION TIME!!! Please make sure you have turned in all monies and tickets for the raffle quilt sale. If you have items for the silent auction, please contact Jayne Clifton. If you volunteered to help during the auction thanks so much!! Most importantly, bring your friends and family.

Refreshments and preview start at 6:30, and the auction at 7:00

If you have any questions or issues, please let me know.

Happy quilting,

Gina

Auction!!

Let's Make This a Good One!!

Community ServiceBecky Wilson*Family Crisis Center

We are still collecting personal care items and tote bags for children in crisis. You can bring them to Becky through December so they can be delivered by the end of the year.

Tis the Seasonings

Baytown Homeless Shelter is in need of seasonings so we will be collecting seasonings for delivery in December. Spices will be collected through the December meeting.

Ronald McDonald House

Ronald McDonald House of Galveston provides a caring, supportive environment for parents of pediatric patients. Their needs are many, including supplies for the House, Classroom, Office and Frozen Foods. To learn more, go to www.rmhg.org/wish-lists

Block of the MonthGloria Hill

We are getting close to the end of our journey. October is the auction so no blocks next month. Bring blocks 11 and 12 to the November meeting. If you bring your block to the meeting, you will be entered into a drawing for a door prize. In December, you will bring your completed top and you will be entered into a special drawing. I hope to see all of you in October!

Just a reminder – while our guild has permission for you to download and print this pattern, please do not copy and distribute elsewhere. Thank you. Happy sewing!! If you have questions, contact me at kengloriah@gmail.com or 832-914-6651.

Rhonda Lawrence's completed BOM quilt.

Why I Started Quilting
Anita Knight

was always a crafter including sewing. Her mother purchased a Longarm machine which peaked Anita's interest in quilting. She went to a guild meeting and was hooked. Anita says she would quilt all the time except for those pesky household chores.

Donation Quilt TicketsLois Tandy

It doesn't seem possible the 2023 Auction and raffle drawing is here. If you have not submitted payment for your tickets, please do so along with completed tickets. and your name stubs to be put in the spinning cage for your chance to win our beautiful quilt.

Thanks to all of you that have stepped up to sell additional tickets in the last two months and for those that have submitted their $25.00 payment as required by the bylaws.

Please bring friends , family and neighbors to the auction for a fun time .

Why I Started QuiltingLinda Hord

For 20 years my job required that I be on the road. During that time, I cross stitched, but my sister Betty always wanted me to join her in her love of quilting. When I moved to Omaha, I started quilting in my basement with friends. And, Better and I began traveling to all the major quilt shows in the country. I've made friends and enjoy creating large and tiny quilts and longarming.

Blue Christmas – another quilt for our auction

Why I Started Quilting Kay Morgan's

dog, Boulet needed a quilt so she made one – a red, white and blue log cabin quilt! The quilt gave Boulet comfort during his entire life. In fact he was wrapped in the quilt when his time came. After Kay made the dog quilt, she made quilts for her kids and never stopped.

Why I Started Quilting Sharon Wood

was always a crafter. Her auto immune disorder acted up and she developed serious problems using her hands. While at a scrapbooking retreat, she learned from other scrapbooks that they had started quilting and suggested she check out Jenny Doan of Missouri Start quilting tutorials. She did – and took classes at Katie B's/Quilters' Therapy and has continued to gain confidence. In fact, you've probably seen samples that she has made for the store.
