February 2022

President's Pen

Jane DeStefano

Hello Everyone,

I hope everyone is doing well. I am looking forward to 2022 programs and workshops. Many thanks to Crystal Arthur for our program line up. February is membership time, please don't forget to register for 2022. The cost is $25.00.

Our raffle quilt is ready - Jane Ott will have your tickets. Please stop by and pick them up.

Gloria is in charge of Block of the Month - I love the quilt she has chosen for us to do and cannot wait to see what everyone's blocks look like...

This month I will be hosting on January 24, 2022 the first BAQG Bee meeting at my home. This is an opportunity for us to gather, learn from each other and just have fun enjoying the art of quilting. I am looking forward to seeing everyone and hopefully growing as a group.

Happy quilting,
Janied

Veronica is the owner of Bear Thread Designs, Inc. and has traveled extensively, teaching the art of fusible appliqué, using The Appliqué Pressing Sheet™. She has demonstrated the technique at quilt shows, guild meetings and cruises. Veronica was taught to sew by her grandma at the age of 4.

Her first project was to sew a button and from there, her projects grew. She learned to machine sew by accidentally sewing over her finger and has since learned the right way to use a sewing machine. Growing up she made most of her own clothes, and enjoyed making clothes for her children when they were growing up. In 1990 she was introduced to quilting by her mother-in-law and was hooked. Since then, she has taught many classes and workshops. She is the owner of Bear Thread Designs, Inc. which is the manufacturer of The Applique Pressing Sheet™, Grip-n-Press™, Grip-n-Grip, The Angelina Sheet, Stick-n-Press and Sew Clean. Her products were first featured in Miniature Quilts Magazine and have also been seen in mediums such as, Sewing & Embroidery Professionals, Round Bobbin's Newsletter, Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting and Quiltmaker. Veronica has appeared on American Quilts Creatively on 8 different shows as well as being featured on QNN.

The Appliqué Pressing Sheet has also been featured on many HGTV programs and has been used and endorsed by many quilting personalities such as, Sue Hausmann of America Sews and America Quilts Creatively, Debbie Mumm of Mumm's the Word, McKenna Ryan of Pine Needle Designs and Linda Simmons of Sulky. In the winter of 2001, Veronica was the judge for the Liberty County Go-Texan Quilt Competition in which the winner went on to compete at the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo. She has judged the Red Dress competition for Janome Sewing Machines, as well as their White on White and Embellishment contests in 2007. In 2008 she judged the Batson Oil Patch Quilt Show. In 2002, she demonstrated "Fun with Fusible", the art of fusible appliqué, on the Round Bobbin Cruise to the Mexican Rivera and returned to demo and teach for the 2003, 2005 thru the 2014 cruises. In 2007 Veronica was the coordinator for the fashion show featuring the release of Quilting Treasures new fabric line, The Wizard of Oz. She had 3 beaded garments in the fashion show. Veronica currently teaches at stores in the Houston area.

As the New Year 2022 gets into full swing, I hope you are all well and hopefully getting a bit of normalcy back into your lives!

Also, I am pleased to announce that our donation quilt tickets will be available for pickup and sales at the February meeting. We are hoping when members pickup their $25 worth of tickets, that they will also decide to purchase them as their dues are renewed. That way you can resell your tickets to someone else or keep them for yourself to be turned in for the October drawing. By purchasing the tickets, the guild can hope to realize as much money as possible to fund our future programs, workshops and activities! Please consider this easy option to helping the guild.

Block of the Month

Gloria Hill

I am excited to present a block of the month for us to work on this year! The pattern is Cinnamon-Teen Chocolate Figs and Roses by TK Harrison of BOM Quilts and Quilt Therapy. We will start out doing two blocks this month. You can access the pattern by going to BOMQuilts.com or quilttherapy.com and look for this pattern. You will see her program ran from Feb. 2006 to Jan. 2007. To align with our dates, I'm starting with Jan. 2007 and Feb. 2006 blocks. She also includes a sheet that shows fabric yardage. Get creative – you can use 12 fabrics as she did or you can use less, as I'm doing – using only 3 or 4 coordinating fabrics. I will also tell you she doesn't oversize her blocks for the half square triangles. So, if you prefer to size them down, you may want to start out with a little bigger block than 4 5/8. The blocks do not take a lot of time to assemble so hopefully won't take a lot of time out of your busy schedules! So, if you're new to our guild, here's how it works! You bring your two completed blocks to our meeting in February and your name will be entered for two drawings. If you only get one block completed, you will be entered into one drawing. As the year goes on, we will do one or two blocks per month so that we will have all 12 blocks completed by November. I will give you information on which block(s) we will do each month. Then in December, you can show your completed quilt top. The top does not have to be quilted and completely finished – just put together. We will have a special drawing in December for those who bring their top to show. This is my first year to do block of the month, so if you have any questions, please let me know. If you have any difficulty accessing the web site for her pattern instructions, let me know and I can try to email to you. Her patterns are meant for personal use but she has given us permission to use in our guild and make copies for our members, so please abide by her copyright license and do not distribute elsewhere. I look forward to seeing all your colorful blocks! Gloria Hill, email: kengloriah@gmail.com or text 832-914-6651.

Minutes of the BAQG January 2022 General Meeting – Gina Miller

Janie DeStefano presided over meeting and welcomed all to our new year of meetings. She then recognized our five guests. Improvements and updates to our website are being done by Pam Jones and Jayne Clifton. There will be a member's only section which will have a members' directory, programs, workshops, etc. There is a Quilting Resources section for members and vendors to highlight what they have to offer our members. They hope to have the member only section ready by February 15th. If not done by then, a membership directory will be printed.

The 2022 budget was printed in the December Newsletter. Bonnie Cone made a motion to approve the budget, seconded by Vicki Carroll. It was approved.

Jane DeStefano will open her home for a quilt bee beginning January 24th. It will be open to anyone in the guild. The hope is other bees will spring off from this. If you are interested in participating and did not sign up at the meeting, please contact Jane.

Crystal Arthur, Programs, gave a rundown of the programs for the year. Our February meeting will host Lola Jenkins as our speaker. Our normal drawings were held for name tag, guest, and member attendance. Membership dues cut-off date for inclusion in directory will be end of February.

Donation Quilt tickets will be available in February. Our annual auction will be in October. Think about donating a kit or quilt to the auction. If you have any ideas, please see Jayne Clifton.

Articles for newsletter should be sent to Jeannine Cross by January 15th.

Treasurer's report was given by Linda Darby.

Patti Macon, Community Service/special projects thanked everyone for their support last year. We will continue to support those charities we have in the past, but if you have suggestions, please let Patti know. She read a thank you letter from the Bay Area Homeless Shelter. It highlighted how our donations can lead to their ability to help someone. Please bring canned goods or non-perishable items next month to be donated to a local food bank.

Jane gave the Sunshine and Shadows update. Kay Morgan, Gina Miller, and Barbara Pitre have had surgery. If you know of others, please let Linda McPike know.

Gloria Hill presented our block of the month for 2022. The pattern is Cinnamon Teen Chocolate Figs and Roses by TK Harrison of BOMQuilts and Quilt Therapy. If you did not get a pattern, you can go to the BOMquilt website and print it. We will start with January 2007 block and February 2006 block. There is also a page on material information. If you bring your two blocks to our February meeting, you will be entered into a drawing for a prize. We will do 1 or 2 blocks each month to get all blocks completed by November and then present the completed quilt top in December. We will have a drawing then also for a prize.

Deloris Ellis, Hospitality, passed around a sign up for food for our upcoming meetings. If you did not sign up, please let Deloris know when you can assist in bringing food.

Two representatives from the Dayton Quilt Guild displayed their donation quilt and had tickets available for sale.

Our business meeting was then adjourned. Our program consisted of a demonstration night. Annette Kuder demonstrated applique using the Appliquick Tools. Jane DeStefano demonstrated the Lazy Girl flying geese ruler. Crystal Arthur demonstrated the Clearly Perfect Slotted Trimmer Ruler – for half square triangles, and Katrina Sommerfeld demonstrated foundation paper piecing. A drawing was held for five prizes given away by the presenters.
