

DETAILS BY LADY T

40 Ways to start the Declutter Process

www.detailsbyladyt.com

DETAILS BY LADY T

Minimizing clutter not only opens up your home, but it can help relieve stress and keep your home more organized.

Here are the 40 ways to start decluttering your home!

- | | |
|--|---|
| Worn out Shoes | Old toothbrushes |
| Old coupons | Old receipts |
| Worn out Blankets & bedding | Socks with no mates |
| Expired Medicine | Old paperwork |
| Old Pillows - sofa pillows included | Old underwear |
| Broken Toys | Old mail & expired bills |
| Old hats, gloves, scarves | Clothes you haven't worn in over 6 months |
| Expired Cleaning Supplies | Torn towels |
| Old magazines & books | Earrings with no match |
| Old Manuals | Pots with missing lids or handles |
| Puzzles & games with missing pieces | Expired food; spices, canned goods etc. |
| Old Maps | Coats that no longer fit |
| Tupperware that's mildewed or missing pieces | Extra cords |
| Old postcards, cards flyers | Soiled area or torn rugs |
| Old perfume, creams & lotions | Burnt out candles |
| Torn rags | Broken holiday ornaments |
| Old nail polish | Old Batteries |
| Broken dishes | Old electronics |
| Old makeup & brushes | Broken pictures or frames |
| Broken Cups | Broken toilet brushes |

