CONVENTION DAY

Thursday, October 28, 2004

This year the WEA Convention will be held on Thursday, October 28, 2004, a paid day for our faculty. It is a time set aside to explore new educational ideas, trends, and to network with other professionals. Please take a moment to indicate below what your plans are for this important and exciting day. Check the applicable item, sign the forms, and return them to your building principal/supervisor by Friday, October 22, 2004. One copy will remain in the office and the other will be filed with the FEA.

We hope your time is exciting! Have a great convention or alternative program.

Dr. Gregory Maass, Superintendent

Hedy Eischeid, FEA President

On Thursday, October 28, 2004, I am attending the WEA Convention in Madison.

I am attending an alternative program/convention approved by my building principal/supervisor. Check one:  On Thursday  On Friday

Name of Program/Convention: _____

If you will not be attending the WEA Convention or an alternative program/convention, please check which type of leave you will be using:

I will use my Personal Day Deducted from Sick Leave (10-year employees);

or

I will use my Personal Business Day with Substitute Pay Deduct;

or

I will use one day of Unpaid Personal Leave (Pay Deduct).

Please note: A blue absence form must also be completed if you choose one of the above three leave options.

Making a Difference:

Essential Practices of Highly Effective Educators™

CTED 836

DPI Approval in process

DESIGNED FOR K-12 EDUCATORS

Making A Difference is an uplifting, experiential, three semester-hour, graduate level course designed for K-12 educators. Based on current literature from the fields of education, leadership, management, personal change, and human resources development, this course will help participants to rediscover and harness the principles that first inspired them, infusing their knowledge of instructional techniques with a focus that will inspire them to contribute meaningfully to their legacy as educators. Participants will:

- recognize that an educator's state of overall wellness affects his or her ability to be productive at work.
- learn how wellness includes elements of well-being in body, mind, relationships, and human spirit.
- study and apply eight essential practices that will help them identify and use their own core beliefs to find a path of peaceful fulfillment in the midst of pursuing today's most challenging job – being an educator.
- read, discuss, and share inspiring stories about the many teachers from all walks of life who have made a difference in the lives of those fortunate enough to be their students...and much more!

Classroom Discipline That Works!™

CTED 674

DPI Approval OC 97-67

DESIGNED FOR K-8 EDUCATORS

Classroom Discipline That Works! is a highly experiential, skills-based course for educators who have grown tired of policing their classroom and would like to share the responsibility of behavior management with their students. Packed with solid information and practical skills from multiple leaders in the field of non-authoritarian discipline, educators will learn to integrate classroom management methods that deal effectively with classroom misbehavior and empowers students with invaluable long-term life skills. Participants will:

- learn why authoritarian, control-based discipline is counterproductive.
- recognize the mistaken goals behind student misbehavior and identify teacher response patterns that redirect the child in a positive way.
- study and practice using multiple, effective, mutually respectful techniques to handle classroom interactions.
- analyze, organize, practice, and evaluate a specific class meeting format designed to give hands-on practice in conflict resolution and problem-solving.
- learn it is possible to move beyond discipline problems and return to teaching...and much more!

More Chances to Learn:

Maximizing Learning by Teaching for Multiple Intelligences™

CTED 621

DPI Approval OC 97-65

DESIGNED FOR K-12 EDUCATORS

More Chances to Learn is an experiential course based on classroom applications of Howard Gardner's theory of Multiple Intelligences. Current research indicates positive cognitive, emotional, social and physical growth occurs if students have the opportunity to learn through their own unique combination of Intelligences. When taught in this manner, they discover diverse areas of personal strength, build self-esteem, and develop leadership skills. Behavior problems are minimized and student love of learning is enhanced! Participants will:

- thoroughly study the seven intelligences.
- experience and analyze diverse activities for awakening and strengthening each Intelligence.
- learn how to adapt any activity to the seven Intelligences.
- plan and teach a multiple intelligence lesson plan for their grade level and content.
- examine intelligence-fair assessment strategies that offer alternatives to traditional testing methods...and much more!
