

INTRODUCTION

Thoroughbreds aren't just champions on the racetrack...they have the ability to compete at the top levels of many horse sports. Their drive, heart, and stamina isn't merely the result of training. These horses are born to be athletes. Unfortunately, many people with good intentions try to "save" thoroughbreds from the track, not understanding that their track training doesn't translate into the behaviors expected by most horse owners.