

HOW WE HELP

At Next Level Equine, we help to buffer the transition from professional athlete on the track to their next high performance equestrian career. We know the training history of these horses because we know the track. That helps us understand their prior expectations and to work with those expectations to change behavior. We nurture their natural ability and understand their need to strive to be a champion.