12.734 PLANNING 33 BUCKINGHAM WAY

Parish Council had no objections.

12.735 SPEEDING SUTTON LANE

DCllr Jordan dealing with this and still awaiting replies from Planning and Highways.

12.736 PARKING

All were amazed at the changes in law relating to parking/parking on yellow lines and in front of driveways, this is no longer a Police responsibility so very little can or will be done to resolve issues.

12.737 GREENSPACE AUDIT

Information supplied by SDC is incorrect. PCllr Nicklin will contact SDC staff with correct data.

12.738 GENERAL MATTERS

Public footpath between Sutton Lane and Ferrybridge badly overgrown. PCllr Mitchell to write to CClr Pearson.

Car Parking Village Hall - balls going over from MUGA area and hitting cars. PCllr Nicklin will be attending Hall Committee meeting Monday and say the Parish Council are willing to pay for sign/s saying 'Cars Parked at Owners Risk', covering all risk assessments that have already been put in place.

CIL at last CEF meeting Andy Pound suggested Byram, Brotherton and Fairburn all use their CIL/106 monies to kick start programme with Water Board to upgrade sewage system as all 3 villages continually experiencing problems. All agreed joint meeting would be advantageous and AP had agreed to chair this.

Coach Road - Parish Council had agreed at a previous meeting to fund one pinch gate on the Coach Road subject to price. This will be approximately £600., will not be fitted until later in the year, agreed this should go ahead.

Dog Warden been involved with dog owner which had bitten at least 3 people, problem now resolved.

Walkabout - during this it was found that 2 Crawford Close had been abandoned without SDC being informed.
