Dear Sponsor,

New Covenant Church of Humble is hosting its annual mud run fund raiser, the Mud Dawg (www.MudDawg.org) on June 22, 2019. This is an obstacle course with lots of mud added for good fun. Funds for this event will benefit the ministries of New Covenant Church.

Our last mud run had over 500 runners from all over the state. Would you or your organization be interested in being one of our sponsors for this fun and challenging event to benefit the ministries that support the Humble community? Since New Covenant Church is a federally recognized non-profit charitable organization, your sponsorship is tax deductible. Would you consider some of our various sponsorship opportunities?
