STATUE OF OUR LADY

The Chapel's blessed Statue of Our Lady is being shared with families in our parish.

Luis & Adriana Farfan hosted Our Lady again this week.

Would you like to host our Blessed Mother in your home for a week and commit to pray at least one decade of the Rosary for the intentions of our priests and Chapel?

Text ADRIANA FARFAN at (949) 400-9136.

WHO IS A DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH?

It is a title given by the Roman Catholic Church to saints recognized as having made a significant contribution to theology or doctrine through their research, study, or writing. It applies to any of the 37 saints whose doctrinal writings are considered to have special authority and are considered to be both true and timeless.

Although the title is not used in the same way in Eastern Orthodoxy, the Orthodox church esteems the 17 doctors of the church who died before the East-West Schism of 1045, and St. John Chrysostom, St. Basil the Great, and St. Gregory of Nazianzus are especially honored as the Three Holy Hierarchs.

In early Christianity the Western (Latin) church recognized four Doctors of the Church – St. Ambrose, St. Augustine, St. Gregory the Great, and St. Jerome – and later adopted the Three Holy Hierarchs of the Eastern church and also St. Athanasius the Great. Since the 16th century and more recently, several others have been given the term Doctor (including four women) by formal proclamation of the Church, among them Saint Thomas Aquinas, St. Bonaventure, St. Anselm, St. Leo I, St. Bernard, St. Francis de Sales, the Venerable Bede, St. Albert the Great, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Teresa of Ávila, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, and St. Hildegard of Bingen.

WORRY.....

Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good. I know better. The things I worry about never happen.

MADE RIGHT BEFORE GOD

Although the opening lines of today's first reading claim that the Lord "knows no favorites" (Sirach 35:15) and is "not unduly partial toward the weak" (35:16), the remainder of the passage makes it clear that the Lord does indeed pay special attention to the weak, the oppressed, and the orphans and widows. The psalmist reiterates: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (see Psalm 34:18). In the Gospel, Jesus claims that a tax collector is more justified in his prayer for mercy than the Pharisee, whose prayer was an account of his own righteous deeds. Jesus' point could not have been clearer: tax collectors in the Jewish society of Jesus' day were not just lowly; they were considered outcasts and cheaters. They collected taxes for the hated Romans and almost certainly collected enough to assure a generous income for themselves. Tax collectors were among society's outcasts; didn't this one just admit his own sinfulness? How could a tax collector be "justified" (that is, made right) before God, while the Pharisee was not? Why would God even listen to the prayer of a tax collector? This surely was a surprise, upsetting common assumptions about righteousness.
