OCTOBER 2026 EDITION

Put Your Faith Where Your Heart Is

Have you tuned in to Pastor Chip's "Hump Day Hope" messages inspiring hope and offering comfort to us in the middle of the week? These messages also call us to action – a powerful reminder to put our faith where our hearts are.

Wednesday, August 12th was one such message. It came on the heels of the Stewardship Committee's first meeting, where we finalized this year's messages and plans for a 6-week call to action. Our plan seemed ambitious... maybe even daunting – that is until "Hump Day Hope" ushered in a "A-ha!"

A quick recap in case you missed it: Pastor Chip boldly encouraged Lord of Life to "take faith out of your pew and into your community." The message goes on to remind us that "Faith journeys from our head, to our heart, to our feet."

This IS stewardship – sharing our gifts, time and talents, and our grace with each other, and our greater community. Join us starting September 27th to explore how each of us at Lord of Life can bring our faith to our feet and share God's love and abundant gifts with our faith family and the greater SE Wisconsin community. Our messages will be shared during weekend worship services and via reels on Social Media, "Hump Day Hope" style!

The Stewardship Team encourages each of us to listen to our hearts in the coming weeks. How will you be called to take your faith out into the world?

Together we can make a powerful impact – simply by going out and doing God's Work.

We are led by love and inspired by grace to serve.

October always feels like a month of transition. The days get shorter. The air gets cooler. The leaves begin to change. But October also reminds us that change doesn't have to mean retreat. In fact, Scripture often calls us to do the opposite.

In 1 Peter 4:9-10 we hear: "Be hospitable to one another without complaining. Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received."

I love that phrase: "the manifold grace of God." It means God's grace comes in all kinds of shapes, sizes, personalities, talents, and abilities.

We all have different giftings and Peter says they all matter. Whatever gift you have received, use it to serve someone else. That is what the church is supposed to look like. Not simply a building we gather in. Not simply a worship service we attend. Not simply an organization we belong to. The church is people using the gifts God has given them to make room for others.

And Peter adds something important: "Be hospitable to one another without complaining." Apparently complaining at church is not a new invention. Who knew? Hospitality is more than having people over for dinner. Biblical hospitality means making space for another person. It means helping someone feel seen, welcomed, valued, and loved.

That can happen at the front door of the church. It can happen during coffee fellowship. It can happen when someone new sits near you in worship. It can happen when you invite someone to join you at an event. It can happen when you serve a meal, teach a child, sing in the choir, help with worship, shovel a sidewalk, stock a shelf, or simply say, "Come sit with me." Every act of hospitality says something about the Gospel.

It says: There is room for you here. And isn't that exactly what Jesus has done for us? Jesus continually made room for people others overlooked. Again and again, Jesus made room. And then he tells us to do the same.

As we move through October and into another busy season of ministry, I want to encourage each of us to ask a simple question: What gift has God given me that I can use for someone else?

Whatever your gift is, Peter says: use it. Because when we do, something beautiful happens. People experience God's grace through us. This October, as leaves change and another season begins, may we be a congregation known not simply for what happens inside our building, but for how generously we make room for others outside of it.

May our tables have room. May our ministries have room. May our worship have room. May our hearts have room. And may we continue to be good stewards of the incredible grace God has first given to us.

See you in church.
Pastor Chip

YOUR GUIDE TO MEDICARE DEADLINES

Millions of Americans pay penalties to Medicare or can't get the coverage they want because they didn't sign up in time. Here's a list of important deadlines ... and what they'll cost you if you miss them. BY ANN KAYRISH ILLUSTRATIONS BY RICHARD MIA

AARP
KNOW
GUIDE

THE BASICS OF MEDICARE COVERAGE

PART A	Inpatient care at hospitals and skilled nursing facilities	Free for most Medicare enrollees.
PART B	Office visits and preventive services	Available through either original Medicare or Medicare Advantage (Part C). Requires a monthly premium.
PART C (MEDICARE ADVANTAGE)	Private insurance comprising Parts A, B and usually D	Some Medicare Advantage plans require both the Part B premium and an additional premium.
PART D	Prescription drug coverage	Paid for separately if you're in original Medicare. Included in the price of most Medicare Advantage plans.
MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT INSURANCE (MEDIGAP)	Coverage for original Medicare enrollees of certain out-of-pocket expenses not paid for by Parts A and B, such as coinsurance and deductibles	Premiums and coverages vary by plan.

THE DEADLINES

	WHAT IT IS	WHEN IT IS
INITIAL ENROLLMENT PERIOD	First opportunity to sign up for Parts A, B and D or Medicare Advantage (MA)	Starting three months before the month of your 65th birthday and lasting for seven months
SPECIAL ENROLLMENT PERIOD	Chance to sign up for Parts A, B, D or Medicare Advantage after certain life events, such as moving out of your plan's service area or losing employer coverage	Year-round; lasts from two to 12 months, depending on the type of life event
ANNUAL OPEN ENROLLMENT PERIOD	Time you can join, drop or switch a drug plan or MA plan, or switch between MA and original Medicare	October 15–December 7
MEDIGAP OPEN ENROLLMENT PERIOD	Onetime opportunity to buy a Medigap policy without regard to preexisting health conditions	Six months, starting with the first month you have Part B and are at least 65
MEDICARE ADVANTAGE OPEN ENROLLMENT PERIOD	An additional annual chance for MA plan members to change plans or switch to original Medicare	January 1–March 31 or within the first three months you get Medicare

THE PENALTIES

PART A
Sign up late and you may pay an extra 10 percent of your premium each month for double the number of years you were eligible for Part A but didn't enroll.

➔ Mimi, who is short the 40 credits of Medicare-covered employment needed to obtain Part A for free, didn't buy coverage until 12 months after her initial enrollment period. That resulted in her having to pay a 10 percent surcharge on Part A premiums for 24 months.

2025–2026 TOTAL PENALTY: $715

PART B
Sign up late and you'll pay an extra 10 percent of the standard monthly premium for every 12 months you were eligible but didn't enroll. You pay the penalty for as long as you have coverage.

➔ Marvin was eligible for Part B in 2022 but delayed enrollment for two years, so he's paying a penalty of 20 percent of the standard monthly premium for life.

PART D
If you sign up late, you'll pay every month an extra 1 percent for each month you didn't join a drug plan when first enrolled in Medicare, or for each month after you go at least 63 days without coverage but don't apply for a Part D plan. You pay the monthly penalty for as long as you have Part D coverage.

➔ Mario enrolled in Part B in 2022 but delayed getting Part D for two years.

MEDIGAP
If you are not in one of the guaranteed issue periods, companies can charge you considerably higher premiums or simply deny you coverage altogether. That leaves you on the hook for certain costs not covered under original Medicare.

➔ Mona, who had a Medicare Advantage policy for three years, switched to original Medicare. Her Medigap application was denied because of her high blood pressure. She now has to pay the coinsurance and deductibles that Medigap might have covered.

KEEP IN MIND
➔ In the first six months you're at least 65 and enrolled in Part B, you have a "guaranteed issue" right for Medigap. Insurers must sell you a plan at the best rate available, despite any health problems.
➔ If you start out Medicare with an MA plan, you have a guaranteed-issue Medigap right if you switch to original Medicare within a year.
➔ Connecticut, Massachusetts and New York residents have guaranteed issue rights at any age over 65. Other states offer such rights under certain circumstances.

KEEP IN MIND

➔ Part A is usually free. Ninety-nine percent of Medicare beneficiaries don't pay a Part A premium because they or a spouse worked and paid Medicare taxes for 10 or more years.

COMMON MISCONCEPTIONS LEADING TO PART B LATE ENROLLMENT PENALTIES

➔ "Medicare enrollment is automatic." That's only if you already receive Social Security. If not, you must apply through the Social Security Administration.
➔ "My retiree, small business, COBRA or Marketplace plan provides all the coverage I need." Plans through COBRA and businesses with fewer than 20 employees don't qualify as primary insurance once you turn 65. Marketplace plans are off-limits if you're Medicare eligible. Federal employee retirement benefits don't shield you from Part B penalties. You can avoid penalties only with a plan from your current employer (or your spouse's) of 20 or more people.

KEEP IN MIND

➔ Medicare uses a plan premium averaging calculation to determine the penalty no matter your plan's cost.
➔ If you have non-Medicare drug insurance that pays as much as Medicare coverage or more—what's known as "creditable" coverage—you won't be penalized, when you sign up for Part D, for the months in which you had that coverage. If your non-Medicare plan, such as a VA or retiree plan, is creditable, you should get an annual notice to that effect.
➔ If you lose creditable coverage, you must apply for Part D within 63 days to avoid the penalty or wait until the annual open enrollment period.

TIPS FOR SMARTER MEDICARE SHOPPING

➔ Before contacting an agent or broker, visit the government's medicare.gov website and identify your coverage options through the Medicare Plan Finder tool. There you can compare Medicare Advantage (MA) and Part D prescription drug plans available where you live.

➔ Take note of plans' ratings on Medicare's five-star scale; five stars is the highest, and any plan with less than three stars is considered poor quality, according to the nonprofit National Council on Aging. For MA plans, the stars are based on factors including customer service, treatment of chronic conditions and provision of preventative care. Part D plans are also based on measures such as accuracy of their pricing and how easily enrollees can obtain their needed medicines.

➔ Seek advice from your local State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) counselors, whom you can reach at shiphelp.org. You can find free, unbiased information on questions including how to enroll, how to change coverage and how to seek assistance with out-of-pocket Medicare costs.

➔ Make sure that agents or brokers you're dealing with are reputable. Check for their license through your state insurance department (visit naic.org and click on Insurance Departments). Also check the directory of the National Association of Benefits and Insurance Professionals (visit nabip.org and click on Find an Agent).

➔ Get help from us. For quick answers to your questions, visit aarp.org/medicare. And AARP is working with Chapter, a service that provides personalized Medicare plan guidance. Licensed advisers can help you compare plans at no cost. Go to aarp.org/medicare/chapter.

thrivent® Action Teams

How do Thrivent Action Teams work? Gather a volunteer team of friends, family or neighbors to put on a fundraiser, educational event or service activity. If your project benefits your community or a cause you care about, involves you and your volunteers, and focuses on making a positive impact, it's likely a great fit. The project should benefit the community where you live, work, or worship, and should not be self-benefitting for you or your immediate family.

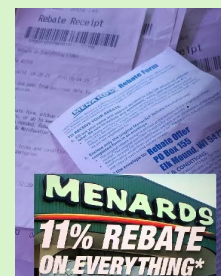

Thrivent will provide the resources you need to get started, including up to $250 in seed money.

To apply for a Thrivent Action Team, you must be a Thrivent client with membership. Not sure if that's you? Visit the Thrivent Membership page for details.

Lord of Life members have used their Thrivent Action Teams in a variety of ways:

- Groceries for our monthly Community Meal
- Provided supplies for the food concessions at our annual craft & vendor fair
- Soup supper paper goods
- Supplies for our Ladies of Lydia quilters
- Sunday School room updates
- Chair leg covers for chairs used by Our Harmony Club to protect our new carpeting.

What are other ways your action team could be used? Visit thrivent.com/actionteam for resources, ideas, and to apply for an action team.

Do you shop at Menards? Do you take the time to mail in their rebates? If not, please consider gifting the rebate portion at the bottom of your receipt to LoL! We will turn them in and use the Menards money to purchase things needed to keep this place running. Drop the rebate receipts into the box located on the Scrip table.

The first batch of receipts you donated earned us $37.47!
