

Mishpatim Answers

1. We should not take advantage of others
2. If we reject our freedom, and depends on man, we cannot serve God fully
3. We need to honor our women even if they are weak and needy
4. We need to respect others, or we loose our lives. We need to take responsibility for our actions
5. God provide atonement. We cannot benefit from death
6. God is our protector
7. We are responsible for the property of others
8. We need to respect and love our women
9. God protect the weak. We cannot take advantage of the needy. Holiness need to be reflected in every aspect of our lives. We need to care for each other properties
10. We need to be true, and cannot act on prejudice
11. God is our provider. We need to remember his salvation and provision
12. The messiah comes before us and destroy the enemy, and give us our inheritance
13. Obedience, and removal of idolatry. God does not allow us to deal with more than we can. We cannot make a pact with the enemy
14. God seek relationship with us through Yeshua. Covenants are sealed in blood

