

Vayeshev Answers

1. Yakov dwelt in the land, more than his fathers who just lived there
2. Yoseph is the fulfillment of Yakov, but he abused his authority
3. Should have kept it to himself
4. Picture of the messiah. Seeking the peace of his brothers at the risk of his life at the command of his father
5. Failed to use his authority to save Yoseph
6. Profited from his brother, caused great grief to his father
7. His sin caused him to be expelled. He became a Canaanite. Finally took responsibility
8. God train him for leadership. He was willing to suffer to avoid sexual sin
9. Had to learn how to use his authority properly
10. Yoseph had to put away his anger, and help others. However he relied on man for his salvation