

The Mermaid's Song

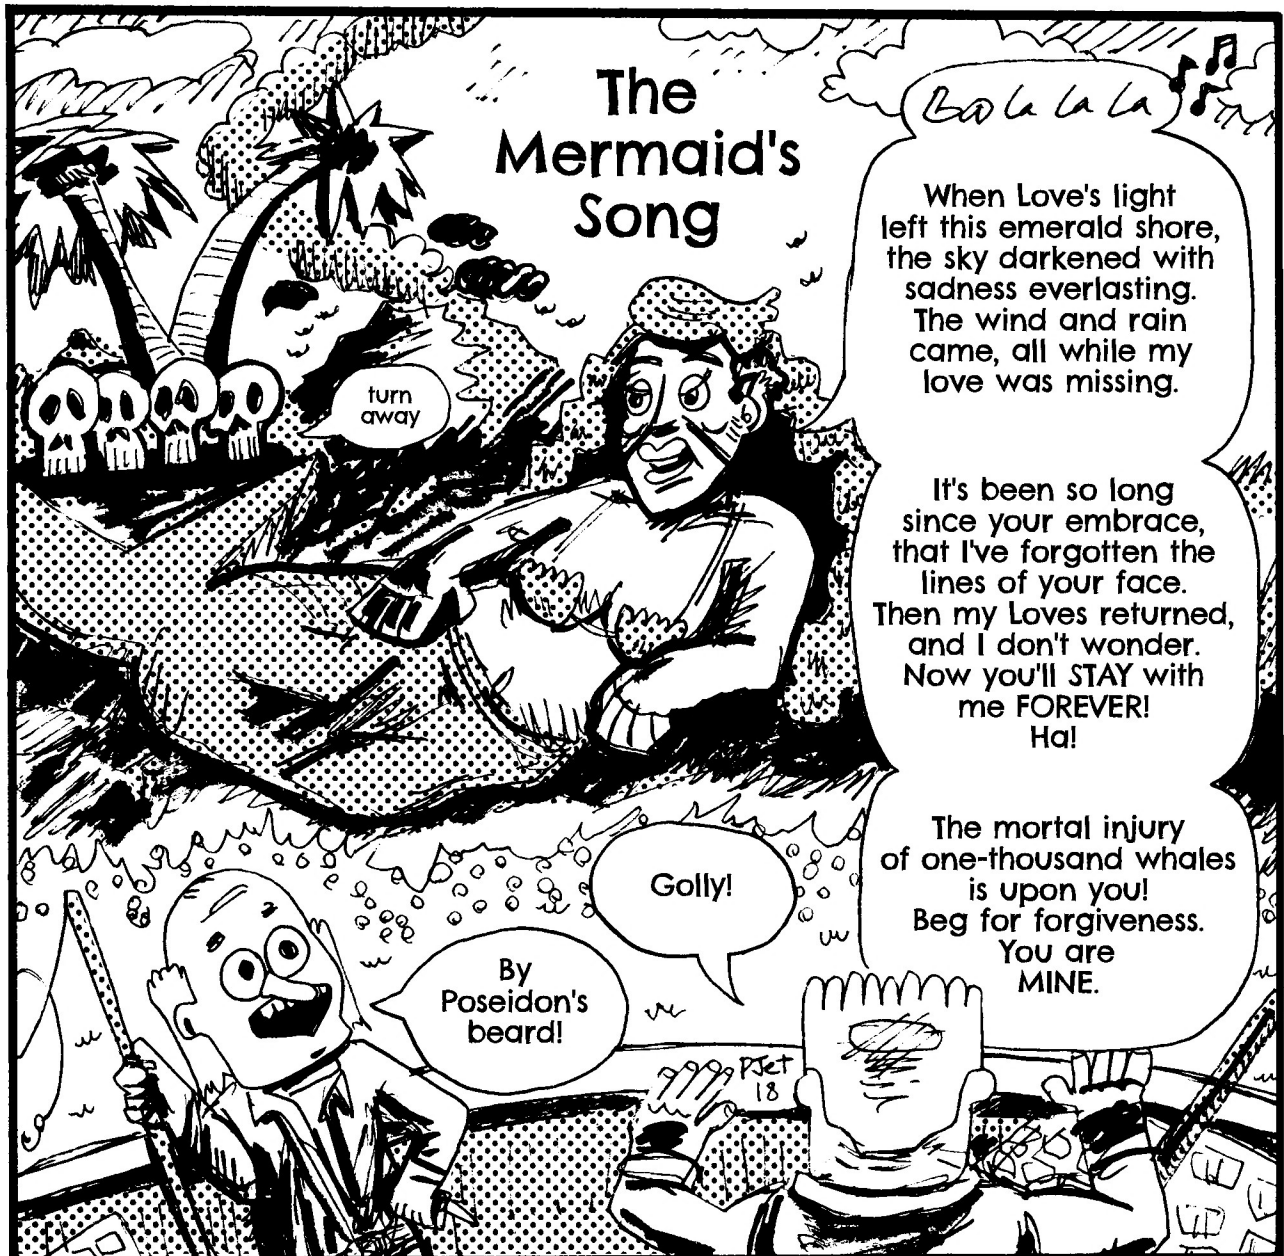

The Mermaid's Song

Bo la la la

When Love's light left this emerald shore, the sky darkened with sadness everlasting. The wind and rain came, all while my love was missing.

It's been so long since your embrace, that I've forgotten the lines of your face. Then my Loves returned, and I don't wonder. Now you'll STAY with me FOREVER! Ha!

The mortal injury of one-thousand whales is upon you! Beg for forgiveness. You are MINE.

Watch my dark majik at work

vengeance is at hand

La La La La

turn away

By Poseidon's beard!

Golly!

Pset 18

