

The Law Office Of Doug Dern News & Updates

Greetings all,

I hope every one had a great weekend. At least we had good weather here in Michigan another week. Hope you all got some work outside done or one last trip to the beach. I been busy writing my consumer bankruptcy book. It is almost finished. It will be available for a free free on my website by the end of the week and it goes to publishing next week as well. I am excited to be able to help more people understand their option for debt relief.

Best Regards,
Doug Dern.

Boy scouts honor in Bankruptcy

- I was never a boy scout, but as a kid I used to read boys life. I had friends that were boy scouts and always respected them. But when my cousin's scout leader went to prison for doing things that scarred my cousin for life and lead to a drug overdose killing my cousin at the age of 39 leaving a beautiful wife, and 4 kids, and a great business I begin to question scouts honor.

- USA Today recently run an article that claims that when the Boy Scouts filed for bankruptcy because of sexual assault law suits of over 1,700 claims of sexual abuse that it went against their own Code of Honor.
- The USA Today article states that the principles of the Boy Scouts is to always pledge yourself to do what is moral and straight.
- I have never morally judged any individual for declaring bankruptcy. But is an organization whose very principles are morality at their core violate it by committing terrible crimes then declaring bankruptcy. Is that sending the wrong message to former Boy Scouts?
