Does the Spirit Dwell in You?

*"But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you."
Romans 8:9*

The Christian's life begins by hearing the gospel and believing it—that the penalty of death for my sins was paid by the sacrifice and death of Christ on the cross—and having faith in its power to make one right with God (Galatians 3:2, 3, 5; Romans 3:21-26; 5:1, 5-6). In Acts (2:36-38; 41), God promises believers that sins are forgiven through faith and baptism. On the Day of Pentecost 3,000 souls were baptized into Christ as they accepted God's promise to forgive sins. The evidence that I am forgiven by God and His grace is my change of life to live by faith. I have assurance because God's word says so! Forgiveness and salvation is settled at conversion to Christ, and the proof of this is baptism.

All Christians have the Spirit of God (Romans 8:9). Every person receives the Holy Spirit, when he or she becomes a Christian. If I am a Christian, then I have the Spirit of God. By having the Spirit of God's presence in your life you are being Spirit-led. The evidence that tells me I am a Christian is the same evidence that tells me I am Spirit-led.

I can be sure about receiving the forgiveness of sins, based on my faith in God's promise and acting on His word. That is as sure as I can be about the Spirit dwelling in me. God gives His Spirit to Christians at the beginning of the Christian life. All Christians have the Spirit of God!—"But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you." Romans 8:9.

His servant and yours, Leonard C. Bradley, Jr.
