

minister's message

A Pilgrim's Prayer, Trust in the Lord

Psalm 84:9-12

(Acts 7:47-50). He never did. Even now He dwells in the hearts of those who believe—Jeremiah 31:31.

"Blessed are those who trust in the Lord"—God is gracious and merciful. He will not withhold any good thing from His own—Romans 8:32. However, sin will alienate those good things, because the precondition is for one to walk uprightly. His message to us is live in faith and put our complete trust in God. This is the greatest blessing that God wants in our daily life. The Psalmist's prayer is to have more of an opportunity for His life to have a part in the worship and service of God. He wants God's favor in his life. He wants God's kindness and blessings. For him, nothing is more satisfying than being in the presence and service of God.

The good news is that our fellowship with God is in Christ. The truth is God does not dwell in man-made things

What is more acceptable to the Lord, than a heart devoted to serve the Lord with a spiritual "appetite" and yearns for fellowship with God (Psalm 42:1-4; Matt 5:6). This psalmist wants to serve God with his whole being. God has no interest in man made things of worship. He wants our hearts. The greatest offering we can make to the Lord is to give Him our whole heart. Your heart is with what you treasure most. If God is your treasure, then your heart is with Him.

Be careful not to take for granted the privilege of worshipping "the living God" (see Psalm 115:1-8). It is a privilege that requires offering our whole heart with every opportunity.

His servant and yours, Leonard C. Bradley, Jr.
