Welcome Friends to the 2022 Amador County Fair

Welcome to the Amador County Fair!

Last year we were Back In The Saddle Again in a bigger way than ever. The enthusiasm for the best four days of the year showed how much all of us missed our Fair. From the Miss Amador Scholarship Pageant to dancing the night away with the Spazmatics, and everything in between. Our 2021 Fair was definitely one for the ages.

2022 promises to be BETTER than ever. As we travel “Around the World in Four Days.” Let’s celebrate the diversity of our people, our cultural differences, and the bounty of our land, but just as important, the commonalities we share that drew us all to this place that we call home, Amador County.

I would like to recognize a long-time board member who has retired this year, Jan Taylor Howard. Jan was first appointed in 1974-1992. She was then re-appointed in 2002-current, for a total 38 years of service. Thank you, Jan, and we wish you well in your retirement.

Welcome to the 2022 Amador County Fair!

AMADOR COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS AND EVENT CENTER

26th District Agricultural Association
"To Forever Enhance Our Standard as the #1 Small County Fair"

Get ready to celebrate all the cultures that make Amador County GREAT, at your #1 small county fair!

The Amador County Fair Board of Directors has announced our theme "Around the World in Four Days" as a recognition of the contributions of those who have come to our county from the far reaches of the globe. This is especially poignant, as we remember on this 100th anniversary those who lost their lives in the Argonaut Mine Disaster, many of whom were immigrants.

Last year the fair enjoyed record attendance and we are keeping up the momentum with even more exciting entertainment, promotions, and attractions.

Creating, growing or raising something new this year? Why not enter it in the fair! This book will outline how to share your best work and see how it stacks up against others in our county. Is it 'Blue Ribbon' material? You will never know if you don't enter!!

Bring us your best, Entries open in person and online starting May 2nd. Come out and enjoy the fun as we travel Around the World at your Amador County Fair!

With deep gratitude, we at the Amador County Fair thank you for your continued support of this community treasure.

Sincerely,

Richard Hoffman, CEO
