APPLICATION

1. The applicant makes application for:
  - a. A declaration that any provision of any statute, regulation, rule, by-law or order of the Government of Ontario establishing any limitation period that was temporarily, suspended on March 16, 2020, by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked, resumed running on September 14, 2020, and the temporary suspension period shall not be counted against any applicable limitation period;
  - b. An order dispensing with service of this notice of application on all persons who may be affected by the suspension of limitation periods brought into effect by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked;
  - c. Should the declaration sought be ordered by this Honourable Court, an order that it be served on the public by posting notice of it on the website of the Ministry of the Attorney General; and
  - d. Such further order as the Honourable Court deems just.

2. The grounds for the application are:
  - a. As part of Ontario's response to the COVID-19 pandemic, on March 17, 2020, a state of emergency was declared under the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act, RSO 1990 c E9 ("EMCPA").
  - b. Section 7.1 of the EMCPA authorizes the Lieutenant Governor in Council to make certain orders when persons affected by the emergency need greater services, benefits

- or compensation than the law of Ontario provides or may be prejudiced by the operation of the law of Ontario.
- c. Specifically, subsection 7.1(2) of the EMCPA permits temporary suspension orders which temporarily suspend the operation of a provision of a statute, regulation, rule, by-law or order of the Government of Ontario.
  - d. In respect of temporary suspension orders of limitation periods, subsection 7.1(6) of the EMCPA specifies that the limitation period resumes running on the date on which the temporary suspension ends and “the temporary suspension period shall not be counted.”
  - e. On March 20, 2020, an Order pursuant to section 7.1 of the EMCPA was issued as Ontario Regulation 73/20 that suspended any provision of any statute, regulation, by-law, or order of the Government of Ontario establishing any limitation period, retroactive to Monday, March 16, 2020.
  - f. Consistent with subsection 7.1(6) of the EMCPA, section 6 of Regulation 73/20 as amended, provided that any limitation period that is temporarily suspended under the Regulation resumes running on the date on which the temporary suspension period ends, and the temporary suspension period shall not be counted.
  - g. On July 24, 2020, the Reopening Ontario (A flexible Response to Covid-19) Act 2020 (“ROA”) came into force. The ROA provided that all orders made under section 7.1 of the EMCPA, like Regulation 73/20, as amended, are continued as valid and effective orders under the ROA and cease to be orders under the EMCPA.

- h. Effective September 14, 2020, pursuant to Regulation 457/20, made under the ROA, Regulation 73/20, as amended, was revoked. As such, all limitation periods temporarily suspended resumed running on September 14, 2020.
- i. Subsections 51(1)(a) and (b) of the Legislation Act, 2006, SO 2006 c 21 Sch F, provides that the revocation of a regulation does not affect the previous operation of the revoked regulation or a right, privilege, obligation or liability that came into existence under the revoked regulation.
- j. Consistent with the EMCPA, the Legislation Act, 2006, and Regulation 73/20, revoked, the temporary suspension period of March 16, 2020 to September 13, 2020, inclusive, should not be counted in respect of any limitation period temporarily suspended and which resumed running on September 14, 2020.
- k. The Attorney General seeks an order dispensing with service of this Notice of Application pursuant to Rule 16.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. It is necessary and in the interests of justice and all current and future litigants in Ontario that the effect of the revocation of Regulation 73/20, as amended, on all applicable limitation periods be determined by this Honourable Court, as soon as possible. It is impractical to serve advanced notice on all current and future litigants who may have an interest in this application and be impacted by the suspension of a limitation period by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked. However, key stakeholders within the legal profession have been given notice of this application. For the same reasons, should the declaration sought be ordered by this Honourable Court, it should be publicly posted.

1. This Honourable Court should exercise its' discretion to grant the declaratory relief sought because the issue is real, not hypothetical; there are no material facts in dispute; and its determination at the earliest opportunity is necessary and in the interests of justice and current and future litigants. Limitation periods have resumed and are currently running and the Attorney General has a genuine interest in the relief sought and a determination of the issue in the public interest.
  - m. Rules 14.05(3)(h) and 16.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure; section 97 of the Courts of Justice Act, RSO 1990 c C43; and the inherent jurisdiction of the Superior Court.
3. The following documentary evidence will be used at the hearing of the application:
- a. Affidavit of John Lee, sworn September 30, 2020.

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN LEE
(sworn September 30, 2020)

---

I, JOHN LEE, of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, SWEAR AND SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am Senior Counsel in the Policy Division at the Ministry of the Attorney General of Ontario. I have been counsel in the Policy Division for 20 years. In that capacity, and on the basis of my experience set out below, I have knowledge of the matters to which I hereinafter depose. Where such matters are based on information and belief, I have stated the source of my information and I believe such matters to be true.

2. Through my role as Senior Counsel in the Policy Division, I am aware that the Ministry of the Attorney General has received written inquiries from various stakeholders in the legal profession about the effect of the revocation of Regulation 73/20, as amended. I have reviewed that correspondence in preparation of this affidavit, and the information set out in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this affidavit is based on that review. Below, I include verbatim excerpts from some of that correspondence. However, in order to preserve the anonymity and confidentiality of those stakeholders, I have not appended the actual correspondence to this affidavit.

3. Various stakeholders, including counsel from the private bar throughout Ontario and a local county law association, have written to the Ministry of the Attorney General to express concern about the revocation of Regulation 73/20, as amended, effective September 14, 2020. Some stakeholders assert in their correspondence that since the Regulation is now revoked, it is of no effect - as if the Regulation had never been passed, which means that as of September 14, 2020, limitation periods are calculated to include the suspension period (March 16, 2020 – September 13, 2020, inclusive). Two excerpts from correspondence to the Ministry are set out below:

[Excerpt 1] Although it seems [...] that the intention was only to end the suspension of limitation periods and filing deadlines, the regulation which has been filed (O. Reg. 457/20) does not just end the suspension, it revokes it entirely. Since O.Reg 457/20 simply revokes O.Reg. 73/20, the effect is presumably that limitation periods and time limits will, as of Monday, be determined as if O.Reg. 73/20 had never been passed.

[Excerpt 2] The fearful logic of some of our members is that 457/20 revokes all of 73/20, which thus vitiates the operation of s.6 of 73/20, and could cause issues with Court/Judicial operations during reopening.

4. Counsel from the private bar have also indicated in their correspondence that they face ‘imminent’ pending deadlines in their cases, which they initially believed were extended by the suspension period, but which they now presume are not extended, because Regulation 73/20, as amended, was revoked. Counsel expressed concern over ‘severe prejudice’ to their clients resulting from the suspension period being counted towards limitation periods. Two excerpts from correspondence to the Ministry are provided below:

[Excerpt 1] [...] However, in relation to one of my files with an imminent time limit, I thought I should look at the source regulations, and as a result, I have a serious concern that the way they have been drafted has caused an unintended effect.

This could cause serious hardship, which I suspect was not intended. Some people would already be out of time, and others now have imminently approaching deadlines which they thought had been extended but now are not.

[Excerpt 2] Given the provision that would provide the courts with the ability to extend the 2 year period for the duration of the Covid-19 suspension is being revoked, and without other legislative protection being enacted in its place, claimants who relied on the protection of O. Reg 73/20 s. 6 could be severely prejudiced.

5. I am advised by Jeffrey Claydon, Counsel at the Crown Law Office Civil (CLOC), that CLOC conducted a review of its current and pending cases (i.e. civil cases in which Her Majesty the Queen in right of Ontario, or the Attorney General of Ontario, are parties to the proceeding). The purpose of that review was to determine whether the effect of the revocation of Regulation 73/20, as amended, arose in any of those cases, such that Her Majesty the Queen in right of Ontario or the Attorney General could raise the issue for judicial determination promptly. Mr. Claydon further advises that despite best efforts to find such a case, CLOC was unable to identify a proceeding in which the matter could be raised urgently.

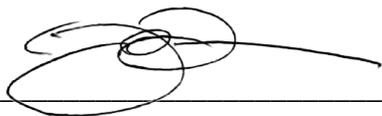

6. I am advised by Jeffrey Claydon, Counsel at the Crown Law Office Civil (CLOC), that CLOC advised key stakeholders in the legal profession of this application, by email on September 30, 2020. Attached as Exhibit "A" to this affidavit is a true copy of one such letter from Judie Im,

Senior Counsel at CLOC, sent to Katie Robinette, Executive Director of the Federation of Ontario Law Societies, dated September 30, 2020, enclosing a copy of the Attorney General’s draft Notice of Application.

7. Attached as Exhibit “B” to this affidavit is a list of stakeholders who received notice from the Attorney General. I am advised by Mr. Claydon that each of the stakeholders listed in Exhibit “B” were sent the same letter enclosing the notice of application, via email, on September 30, 2020.

8. I make this Affidavit in support of the Attorney General’s application for declaratory and other relief and for no other or improper purpose.

Ms. Robinette:

Re: *Application by the Attorney General for Ontario – Effect of Suspension of Limitation Periods

I am counsel for the Attorney General for Ontario.

Please be advised that the Attorney General intends to bring an application to the Superior Court of Justice in respect of the effect of the revocation of Regulation 73/20, as amended, on limitation periods. Regulation 73/20, as amended, suspended all limitation periods between March 16, 2020 to September 13, 2020, inclusive (“the suspension period”), meaning that limitation periods resumed on September 14, 2020. A courtesy copy of the Notice of Application to be issued is enclosed.

Further to the Notice, the Attorney General will be seeking a declaration that the suspension period shall not be counted in the calculation of any limitation period to which Regulation 73/20, as amended, applied.

In order to provide clarity and certainty to litigants in Ontario, the Attorney General intends to seek the declaration at the earliest possible Court date that is available. Please contact me if you or your counsel would like any further information.

Yours very truly,

Judie Im, Senior Counsel
Crown Law Office Civil Encl.

APPLICATION

1. The applicant makes application for:
  - a. A declaration that any provision of any statute, regulation, rule, by-law or order of the Government of Ontario establishing any limitation period that was temporarily, suspended on March 16, 2020, by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked, resumed running on September 14, 2020, and the temporary suspension period shall not be counted against any applicable limitation period;
  - b. An order dispensing with service of this notice of application on all persons who may be affected by the suspension of limitation periods brought into effect by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked;
  - c. Should the declaration sought be ordered by this Honourable Court, an order that it be served on the public by posting notice of it on the website of the Ministry of the Attorney General; and
  - d. Such further order as the Honourable Court deems just.

2. The grounds for the application are:
  - a. As part of Ontario's response to the COVID-19 pandemic, on March 17, 2020, a state of emergency was declared under the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act, RSO 1990 c E9 ("EMCPA").
  - b. Section 7.1 of the EMCPA authorizes the Lieutenant Governor in Council to make certain orders when persons affected by the emergency need greater services, benefits

- or compensation than the law of Ontario provides or may be prejudiced by the operation of the law of Ontario.
- c. Specifically, subsection 7.1(2) of the EMCPA permits temporary suspension orders which temporarily suspend the operation of a provision of a statute, regulation, rule, by-law or order of the Government of Ontario.
  - d. In respect of temporary suspension orders of limitation periods, subsection 7.1(6) of the EMCPA specifies that the limitation period resumes running on the date on which the temporary suspension ends and “the temporary suspension period shall not be counted.”
  - e. On March 20, 2020, an Order pursuant to section 7.1 of the EMCPA was issued as Ontario Regulation 73/20 that suspended any provision of any statute, regulation, by-law, or order of the Government of Ontario establishing any limitation period, retroactive to Monday, March 16, 2020.
  - f. Consistent with subsection 7.1(6) of the EMCPA, section 6 of Regulation 73/20 as amended, provided that any limitation period that is temporarily suspended under the Regulation resumes running on the date on which the temporary suspension period ends, and the temporary suspension period shall not be counted.
  - g. On July 24, 2020, the Reopening Ontario (A flexible Response to Covid-19) Act 2020 (“ROA”) came into force. The ROA provided that all orders made under section 7.1 of the EMCPA, like Regulation 73/20, as amended, are continued as valid and effective orders under the ROA and cease to be orders under the EMCPA.

- h. Effective September 14, 2020, pursuant to Regulation 457/20, made under the ROA, Regulation 73/20, as amended, was revoked. As such, all limitation periods temporarily suspended resumed running on September 14, 2020.
- i. Subsections 51(1)(a) and (b) of the Legislation Act, 2006, SO 2006 c 21 Sch F, provides that the revocation of a regulation does not affect the previous operation of the revoked regulation or a right, privilege, obligation or liability that came into existence under the revoked regulation.
- j. Consistent with the EMCPA, the Legislation Act, 2006, and Regulation 73/20, revoked, the temporary suspension period of March 16, 2020 to September 13, 2020, inclusive, should not be counted in respect of any limitation period temporarily suspended and which resumed running on September 14, 2020.
- k. The Attorney General seeks an order dispensing with service of this Notice of Application pursuant to Rule 16.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. It is necessary and in the interests of justice and all current and future litigants in Ontario that the effect of the revocation of Regulation 73/20, as amended, on all applicable limitation periods be determined by this Honourable Court, as soon as possible. It is impractical to serve advanced notice on all current and future litigants who may have an interest in this application and be impacted by the suspension of a limitation period by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked. However, key stakeholders within the legal profession have been given notice of this application. For the same reasons, should the declaration sought be ordered by this Honourable Court, it should be publicly posted.

1. This Honourable Court should exercise its' discretion to grant the declaratory relief sought because the issue is real, not hypothetical; there are no material facts in dispute; and its determination at the earliest opportunity is necessary and in the interests of justice and current and future litigants. Limitation periods have resumed and are currently running and the Attorney General has a genuine interest in the relief sought and a determination of the issue in the public interest.
  - m. Rules 14.05(3)(h) and 16.04 of the Rules of Civil Procedure; section 97 of the Courts of Justice Act, RSO 1990 c C43; and the inherent jurisdiction of the Superior Court.
3. The following documentary evidence will be used at the hearing of the application:
- a. Affidavit of John Lee, sworn September 30, 2020.

APPLICATION UNDER Rule 14.05(3)(h) of the Rules of Civil Procedure

ORDER

THIS APPLICATION made by the Attorney General for Ontario for declaratory relief concerning the effect of the Ontario Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked, without notice, was read this day at Osgoode Hall, Toronto.

ON READING the notice of application, the affidavit of John Lee, the factum of the Attorney General, and the Draft Order,

1. THIS COURT grants leave to bring this application ex parte without service of the notice of application on all persons who may be affected by the suspension of limitation periods brought into effect by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked.

2. THIS COURT DECLARES that any provision of any statute, regulation, rule, by-law or order of the Government of Ontario establishing any limitation period that was temporarily suspended on March 16, 2020, by Regulation 73/20, as amended, now revoked, resumed running on September 14, 2020, and the temporary suspension period shall not be counted against any applicable limitation period.

  3. THIS COURT ORDERS that this order be served on the public by posting it on the website of the Ministry of the Attorney General.
