Woof & Purr Remarks

Pet Boarding Updates

As seasons change, we like to take this time to remind clients to confirm reservations. Following Labor Day, we will now be requiring all clients to pay a nonrefundable 3 night deposit for all holiday reservations moving forward. Please note, we require a three night minimum for all holiday boarding reservations, so daycare availability is limited.

Bark Topic

Seasonal Activities

1. Bake Pumpkin Doggie Treats
2. Play in a pile of leaves
3. Visit a pumpkin patch
4. Go for a hike
5. Take a road trip into the woods

Our facility will be closed for annual maintenance this October 20th-26th.

Doggie Daycare

Do you want to build your dog's socialization skills, but do not know how? Consider doggie daycare! We have multiple play groups each day to insure the right fit for your pet. Already a client?! Have you set up a routine schedule? We are accepting reservations through the end of the year!

Howling out laughter!

Question: What do you call a wild dog that meditates?

Answer: Aware wolf.

Help Wanted

Are you passionate about animals? Are you looking for a fulfilling job working with other pet lovers like you? Come in and apply today. We are always looking to grow our team.

Parent Portal

All of our clients now have access to an online portal and mobile app through Gingr. These new features make it easier to request reservations, inquire about availability, update information, and stay up to date on vaccinations.

Meow News

Have you ever considered cat boarding? We have an open concept space for your furry friends to roam freely. Please note we require a two night minimum for all cat reservations. Call to check for availability!
