December News 2025

Artifact Day in the Church Basement

Sunday Dec. 21
Between church services, and 12—2 p.m.

The 175th Anniversary Committee has been sifting through some church artifacts, ledgers, photos, news clips, and more items that have been locked away in closets for many years.

We would like to conduct an open house to allow members to look over these items, and take what they would like, especially if it's tied to their family, or a church organization they were members of now or in the past.

Advent Devotionals

The Lutheran Laymen's League at St Michael's, with support from St. Michael's Endowment Fund, has blessed us with advent devotionals. Do you have family devotions through the year? If not, perhaps you can start having them during Advent.

In our church chancel, we have an advent wreath with three blue candles and a pink one with a Christ candle in the center. It used to be three purple candles and a pink one. This is not just for church, and it is not just decorative. The use of the Advent wreath is also meant to be used at home during your Advent devotions.

Perhaps pick up an advent wreath or get four candles to use in your home, and please take this time especially to use the supplied Advent devotions for your family daily devotions.

Gift Card Fundraising

It's that time of year again where you can simplify your gift-giving needs by purchasing gift cards through RaiseRight (formerly known as Scrip). They offer a variety of gift cards including local vendors & restaurants that are available to purchase at face value with the retailer offering a rebate that goes back to St. Michael's. The recipient of the rebate is chosen by you, which can include school tuition, childcare costs, hot lunch, 7th/8th grade class trip or the church's Home Purpose account.

We will once again be offering the sale of select cards/order forms in the church foyer between services beginning Nov 30th—December 14th.

Orders may also be made by going online to Raiseright.com or by stopping by the school office during school hours.

This is a simple and easy fundraiser to fulfill your shopping needs or to buy for your everyday essentials. A large list of retailers and restaurants is available at Raiseright.com

We appreciate those of you who have participated in this fundraiser in the past.

Call Cheryl (989)882-5621
or Lavonne (989)863-0081
if you would like to assist or if you have any questions.

*Thanks be unto God
for his unspeakable gift.*

thank everyone who helped make our annual Greenery Sale a success by purchasing a Grave Blanket or a Wreath.

With your generosity and the support from Thrivent we are able to make a donation to the Tuscola county based Sleep In Heavenly Peace organization, to assist them with their goal of providing a bed for kids that do not have a bed.

We will also provide a donation to pastor Conrad
